PREFACE

This Catalog is based primarily on well selected library lists and is arranged under author, title and subject, with annotations under the author entry. In addition, it has analytical entries for 863 titles.

In this, the third edition of the Children's Catalog, are included about 4100 titles of books which are recognized by experienced workers in children's libraries and schools as desirable books for children's departments of libraries. As the average library does not include this number of children's books, this allows for a margin of some choice on the part of individual libraries to meet local conditions. For the smaller libraries there is an edition of 1200 titles. From the beginning the Catalog has been based on carefully selected library lists and so represents the choice of specialists best fitted for this work. The list of bulletins, catalogs, etc. on which the various editions have been based is given on another page.

The first edition of the Catalog, containing 3000 books, was compiled by Marion E. Potter in 1909, and was based on 24 selected lists. The second edition, compiled by Corinne Bacon in 1917, contained 3500 books and was based on 54 lists. In the present edition of 4100 books 35 additional lists were used, making a total of 89.

The Catalog is planned to meet two needs of a library: (1) Use as a catalog, (2) Use as a buying list, showing the best titles for public and school libraries to buy in building up collections of children's books. For this latter purpose the information about publishers, prices and editions has been gone over very carefully. For the former purpose much analytical work has been done.

The Catalog is dictionary in form, with author, title and subject entries in one alphabet, thus following the form of the previous edition familiar to its many users. The fullest information, including annotations, is given under the author entry. In general, subject headings follow those given in Miss Mann's "Subject Headings for Juvenile Catalogs" but, as in the earlier edition, the material on U. S. history has been kept together. For a few new subjects not covered by this list and for some changes necessitated by the passage of time the "List of Subject Headings for Small Libraries," edited by M. E. Sears, has been used. Where there has been a choice in the form of the author's name, the simpler form has been used as being better adapted to a catalog to be used by children.

This new edition would have been impossible without the valuable cooperation given throughout by children's librarians. One of the first questions the editor had to consider was the elimination of such titles included in the last edition and its supplements as are no longer thought desirable. In this work of discarding, the editor was greatly assisted by Miss Alice I. Hazeltine, now of the St. Louis Public Library, Miss Alice M. Jordan, of the Boston Public Library, Miss Effie L. Power, of the Cleveland Public Library, and Mrs. Mary E. S. Root, who checked both Catalog and Supplements to indicate omissions. The St. Louis Public Library sent us a list of titles dropped from its children's department and the editor had access to a somewhat similar list at the New York Public Library. In discarding we tried to take two points of view—that of the old library having the books on the shelves and perhaps still finding them useful, and that of the comparatively new library which still has most of its books to buy.

In addition to checking the old Catalog, the librarians mentioned have gone over 1500 additional titles, principally publications of 1921-24. Miss Nina C. Brotherton, of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, and Miss Mary E. Eastwood, of the New York State Library, have also gone over these new lists. Miss Clara W. Hunt has sent us the annual lists of books added to the Children's department of the Brooklyn Public Library, together with the "One Thousand Books for Boys and Girls, 1923" and "Another Thousand Books for Boys and Girls, 1924." Miss Anne Carroll Moore has gone over lists of recent books with the editor and has given advice about individual titles.

The editor has also had important help from specialists in different fields, and the fact that the books in scientific and technical lines, such as chemistry, electricity, radio, etc. have the approval of both librarians and specialists adds materially to the value of the Catalog. Mr. Donald Hendry, Pratt Institute Free Library, Mr. E. H. McClelland, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, Mr. M. Meister, Training School for Teachers, New York City, checked various scientific and technical lists, and suggested new titles. Miss Erna Grassmuck, Director of Geography in the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, checked the lists of geography and geographical readers. Miss Miriam S. Draper of the Brooklyn Children's Museum, kindly went over the lists on her specialties.

Two sources of valuable aid, new since the last edition of the Catalog, should be mentioned. They are: (1) the reviews of children's books by A. C. Moore appearing in the Bookman since November 1918, which fill a great need as authoritative evaluation of children's books, and (2) the page edited by Miss Moore in the New York Herald-Tribune each Sunday since autumn 1924.

After considering votes for and against the inclusion of any title, the editor necessarily made the ultimate decision in accordance with the votes, and responsibility for the final selection does not rest individually with those who have cooperated with us.

The Catalog includes American publications almost exclusively. A few notable English publications of which no American edition exists have been included and a very few French and German titles have been carried over from the earlier edition. Occasionally, where the American edition of a desirable book is out of print, an available English edition has been substituted.

About 600 new titles, not counting new editions of books previously included, have been added. These cover principally the years of 1921-24 but some old titles were added in order to fill gaps. Because of the difficulty of getting at once the final authoritative opinion as to the value of children's books, it seemed wiser to be conservative about the inclusion of the newest books whose value is not yet established. In this respect Miss Hunt's advice in her "Library Work with Children" to "wait for the opinions of competent specialists in library work with children" has been followed. Most of the outstanding titles of 1924 have been included and a special effort was made to include the desirable new editions of older books issued recently. In some cases, where it has been practicable, new editions appearing early in 1925 have been added as the work was going through the press.

A feature of the Catalog which has always been especially valuable is the extensive analysis of books. Children's librarians who were consulted emphasized the importance of continuing this feature. In this edition 863 titles, making 942 volumes, have been analyzed. Of the 600 new titles added in this edition 153 have been analyzed. In this analysis special stress has been placed on bringing out material on topics which are decidedly "live" subjects in children's work. Thus, books of games and occupations, plays on special subjects, books on industries and inventions, nature books, and recent scientific material have all been fully analyzed. This feature of minute analyzing is carried out to an extent which would be impossible in the card catalog. To teachers and normal school students, as well as librarians, this analysis will be an invaluable key to the resources of the books at their disposal, making available hitherto unsuspected material. Where a new edition has been substituted for the one analyzed in the 1917 Catalog, the paging given for the analytics is that of the new edition. This should be borne in mind by libraries still using the old edition of such a book. It is assumed that for fairy tales, myths and legends Miss Eastman's Index will be used.

Dates of publications are given in all classes except fiction and mythology. The latest copyright date is generally used. Under the author entries will also be found the publisher and price. Especial attention has been given to the question of price and editions, and great pains have been taken to insure accuracy on this point. Notwithstanding all of this, it is realized that some inaccuracies will be found. Since the edition of 1917, war and post-war conditions have caused an enormous number of changes in prices and publishers. To insure accuracy and up-to-dateness the information about prices and editions has been secured whenever possible by direct correspondence with the publishers and it is hoped that results justify the amount of work involved.

A number of out of print books from the previous edition have been included, where they are still useful and desirable from the library point of view. Libraries having on their shelves such out of print books will doubtless be glad to have them included in the Catalog. Furthermore, if including them here helps to create a demand for them, it is hoped that the publishers may reprint some, at least, of the desirable children's books now out of print. All such out of print books have been plainly marked "o.p. 1924" in the author entry, and the price in such cases is that given in the 1917 Catalog and has been left in as some indication of the relative price of the book.

The books have been graded as in the last edition, the grades being given in parenthesis in both author and subject entries. While the grading is necessarily only approximate, users of the Catalog feel that it is a useful feature which should be continued. In many cases the grades have been taken from library lists (such as the Newark "Books for Boys and Girls" and the lists issued by various state library commissions.) In the matter of grading Siri Andrews, a member of our staff, has been of great assistance because of her years of experience in children's work in libraries.

Annotations are given for all of the new titles added and for most of the old titles from the former edition. These descriptive annotations have, as a rule, been taken from library lists and their source has been indicated. In most cases notes are given under author entry only.

Though the question of illustrators of children's books is an interesting one, it is not feasible in a work of this kind to bring out all of the illustrators. Entries have been made for noteworthy examples of the work of some of the illustrators, e.g. Pogány, Wyeth, etc. Where the illustrations are the important part of the book there is, of course, no question about the need for such entries.

Two brief lists will be found at the end: Aids in story telling, and Books about children's reading.

Thanks are due to the publishers who have generously given us copies of books included in the Catalog. These books are kept in our permanent collection where they will be of use both now and in the future when it is a question of yet another edition of the Catalog.

To the staff who have assisted in the work the editor wishes to express her grateful thanks for their very efficient aid. Siri Andrews has ably seconded the editor in practically all parts of the work. In particular, credit is due to her for the great amount of detail that was required to bring up to date information about titles carried over from the previous edition. She is likewise responsible for editorial reading of galley and page proof. Phyllis Crawford has been of great help in cataloging and in other parts of the work. Mrs. Ruth Rotman has rendered efficient service in typing copy. At the outset of the work Mrs. Cora W. Henry helped in assembling material. To Mrs. Kathleen Hayes Harris thanks are due for her capable assistance in the preliminary stages of the work.

Adams, Katharine

Mehitable. Macmillan $1.75; 75c (6-8)
"To Mehitable in her Vermont home comes the opportunity to go to school in Paris. Mehitable has just passed her sixteenth birthday and it all seems to her like a dream, so quickly is she whisked away from familiar scenes to find herself in a strange land. In spite of the little home-made frocks with which Aunt Comfort and the village dress-maker have fitted her out and which make her look old fashioned and quaint to the other girls, she makes a place for herself in the Chateau d'Estes and finds friends." Bk. rev. digest

Midsummer. Macmillan $1.75 (6-8)
"An American boy and girl spend the summer visiting their grandfather in Sweden, who lives in a gloomy castle on the rocky coast. Their friendship with interesting Swedish children, the mystery of the castle and of the fisher boy, Nore, are woven into an attractive story." N.Y. state lib.
"Girls' book of great charm. Has the very atmosphere of Sweden, and the mystery is remarkably well handled." A. C. Moore in Bookman

Red caps and lilies; il. by Jay Van Everen. Macmillan $2 (6-8)
"A story of a group of children in the early days of the French revolution, who have many adventures before their escape from Paris is accomplished with the aid of a devoted old shepherd and a trusty English friend. Well told with unusually good characterization." Bkl.

Wisp; a girl of Dublin. Macmillan $2 (6-8)
"Heroine is a little Irish girl of fourteen who, while dwelling in a dingy tenement, really lives in a beautiful world of make-believe. Two American girls and their cousins from India, all living in Dublin during the war, learn to feel the charm and poetry of the land through warm hearted, romantic Wisp." Bkl.

Apache gold. Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Hunting for the lost treasure of the Spaniards in the land of the cliff-dwellers, Charles Wayne, a border lad, has terrifying encounters with wild beasts and Apache Indians." Pittsburgh

Border watch. (Young trailers ser. v8) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Period of the border struggle between red man and white along the Ohio. The daring exploits of the 'Young trailers' and their comrades of the woods help to bring about the defeat of the great Wyandot chief and his Indian allies by Clark and Logan." Pittsburgh

Eyes of the woods. (Young trailers ser. v4) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Story of the escape of a boy from a band of searching Indians. Deals with the same hero and his four companions that figure in 'Keepers of the trail' and 'Free rangers.'" N.J. lib. bul.

Forest runners. (Young trailers ser. v2) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Stirring story of the winning of Kentucky." A. L. A. bkl.

Free rangers. (Young trailers ser. v5) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Story of the exploits of the five young woodsmen who figured in 'The young trailers' and 'Forest rangers' in their endeavor to assist the settlers in Kentucky and along the Mississippi against the treachery of the Indians and the Spanish emissaries. Inferior to the earlier volumes." A. L. A. bkl.

Great Sioux trail. (Great West ser. v1) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"William Boyd with his friend started out for the Northwest to find a gold mine left him by his father. They faced all the dangers of wilderness and the Indians. His life in an Indian village where he is taken captive, how he worked up from the position of slave to one of honor makes a readable story. . . . First of a series concerned with the opening of the West just after the Civil war." Bkl.

Guns of Bull Run. (Civil war ser. v1) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Gives a picture of events which prefaced the war and ends with the battle of Bull Run. Southern side, unprejudiced and not gory." A. L. A. bkl.

Guns of Shiloh. (Civil war ser. v2) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"In 'The guns of Bull Run' the civil war and its beginnings are seen through the eyes of Harry Kenton, who is on the southern side. In 'The guns of Shiloh' the mighty struggle takes its color from the view of Dick Mason, who fights for the North and who is with Grant in his first great campaign." Foreword

Horsemen of the plains. Macmillan $1.75; Grosset $1 (6-8)
"Stirring story of boy's adventures with fur hunters in the Rockies in the late 60's." A. L. A. bkl.

Hunters of the hills. (French and Indian war ser. v1) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Story of the French and Indian war, giving a good picture of Indian life and warfare." N.J. lib. bul.

In circling camps. Appleton $1.75 (8)
"Romance of the civil war, much above the average. . . . The fight at Gettysburg is described in the most vivid colors." Pittsburgh

Keepers of the trail. (Young trailers ser. v3) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Story of an encounter with Indians in Kentucky during the revolution." Boston

Last of the chiefs. Appleton $1.75; Grosset (Every boy's lib.) $1 (6-8)
"Experiences of two young boys, who, abandoned in the Rockies, spend two years trapping and fighting Indians and wild beasts. They are captured by the Sioux and witness Custer's last fight." Washington

Lords of the wild. (French and Indian war ser v5) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"A thrilling story for boys, with the hero Robert Lennox and his friends Willet and Tayoga in flight from the Indians. The scene is at Lake George and the story ends with Abercrombie's defeat at Ticonderoga." Bkl.

Lost hunters. (Great West ser. v2) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Continues the adventures of Will Clarke. He is captured by a band of Sioux Indians, and has many adventures. A picture of Indian life in the Northwest shortly after the Civil war." Wis. bul.

Masters of the peaks. (French and Indian war ser. v4) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Continues the narrative of the French and Indian war. It covers the period between the victory at Lake George and the downfall of Fort William Henry." Bkl.

Riflemen of the Ohio. (Young trailers ser. v6) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Further adventures of Henry Ware and his friends in the Ohio valley. Daniel Boone, Simon Kenton and Girty, the renegade, are characters in the story, which is full of fighting and thrilling adventures. Inferior to 'The young trailers.'" A. L. A. bkl.

Rock of Chickamauga. (Civil war ser. v6) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Dick Mason, the northern hero, figures prominently in the siege of Vicksburg and also in various dangerous and important missions." A. L. A. bkl.

Rulers of the lakes. (French and Indian war ser. v3) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"The scene is laid around Lakes George and Champlain at the time of the French and Indian war just after Braddock's defeat. The boy heroes act as scouts for William Johnson in the expedition against Crown Point." A. L. A. bkl.

Scouts of Stonewall. (Civil war ser. v3) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Continues the fortunes of the hero of 'Guns of Bull Run.' Harry Kenton now acts as aide on the staff of Stonewall Jackson." A. L. A. bkl.

Scouts of the valley. (Young trailers ser. v7) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Adventures of Henry Ware and his friends with the Indians, their unsuccessful attempt to prevent the Wyoming valley massacre and their share in the battle of the Chemung. Sufficiently independent of predecessors in this series to be read as a separate book." A. L. A. bkl.

Shades of the wilderness. (Civil war ser. v7) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Harry Kenton, again the hero, is an aide to Robert E. Lee, which gives opportunity for a romantic picture of the great Southern leader." A. L. A. bkl.

Shadow of the north. (French and Indian war ser. v2) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Altho an independent story, it continues the adventures of the three important characters in 'Hunters of the hills.' It is a tale of border warfare with the French and Indians, and gives a good picture of colonial New York." N.J. lib. bul.

Soldier of Manhattan. Appleton $1.75 (8)

"Ticonderoga and Quebec, 1758-59. A historical novel of the French and Indian war." N. Y. city

Star of Gettysburg. (Civil war ser. v5) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

Describes the battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg from the southern point of view

Sun of Quebec. (French and Indian war ser. v6) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

Sun of Saratoga. Appleton $1.75 (8)

"Tale of Burgoyne's invasion and surrender, 1777." N. Y. city

Sword of Antietam. (Civil war ser. v4) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Dick Mason takes an important part in three great battles, Second Manassas, Antietam, and Murfreesborough. The northern point of view is given, with McClellan as the chief historical character." A. L. A. bkl.

Texan scouts. (Texan ser. v2) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"The characters in 'The Texan star' go through experiences leading up to and through the Alamo. Crockett and Bowie figure bravely and Santa Anna makes the most desperate of villains. A better story than the first and of some value for its historical setting." A. L. A. bkl.

Texan star. (Texan ser. v1) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"Deals with the earlier events in the struggle of Texas for freedom. The interest is in the story rather than in the historical background." Cleveland

Tree of Appomattox. (Civil war ser. v8) Appleton $1.75 (6-8)

"The concluding volume of the Civil war series of which 'The guns of Bull Run' was the first volume. An impartial account of the closing days of the Civil war." St. Louis

Arabian nights' entertainments

"The best edition for children is that edited by Dixon. Another attractive edition is prepared by Wiggin and Smith, and illustrated by Parrish. Editions for children are usually based on the French version by Galland, and though romantic and charming, are not truly Oriental. If possible the translation from the Cairo text, by E. W. Lane, should be read aloud to the children. This last version has a breadth and strength that is not in Galland. It pictures the life in the deserts and cities of the Orient, and it relates its wonders with a dignity and definiteness of picturesque detail that convinces the imagination. The drawings by Harvey are delightful and appropriate." Olcott

Adventures of Haroun Er Raschid, and other tales; ed. by F. J. Olcott; il. by Willy Pogány. Holt $2.50 (4-6)
"Miss Olcott's third volume of tales from the 'Arabian nights.' The tales included are excellent, although not the familiar ones found in other collections, and their division into episodes, as in the Burton edition, facilities the reading and makes interesting complete stories rather than a complex adventure." Wis. bul.

Arabian nights; ed. by W. H. D. Rouse; il. by Walter Paget. Dutton $2.50; household ed $2.50 (4-6)
"Brief and simple version of the most popular tales with beautiful illustrations, some in color, some in half-tone and many in text." Wis. free lib. com.

Arabian nights: tales of wonder and magnificence; ed. by Padraic Colum; il. by Eric Pape. (Macmillan children's classics) Macmillan $1.75 (5-6)
"Based on the Lane translation of 'The thousand and one nights.' Contains an excellent introductory chapter by Mr. Colum on the origin of this literature." Cleveland

Arabian nights: their best known tales; ed. by K. D. Wiggin and N. A. Smith; il. in colour by Maxfield Parrish. Scribner $2.50 (4-6)
Contents: Talking bird, the singing tree and the golden water; Story of the fisherman and the genie; History of the young king of the Black isles; Story of Gulnare of the sea; Story of Aladdin; or, The wonderful lamp; Story of Prince Agib; Story of the city of brass; Story of Ali Baba and the forty thieves; History of Codadad and his brothers; Story of Sinbad the voyager
"Twelve full-page plates, individual, highly imaginative, and unsurpassed in richness of color." Pittsburgh
"The ten tales chosen are the best for children. . . . Some of the stories are not so well told for children as in the Lang version." A. L. A. bkl.

Arabian nights' entertainments; based on a translation from the Arabic by E. W. Lane; ed. for young people by F. J. Olcott. Holt $2 (4-6)
"A selection of stories, chosen from the Lang edition except the last two, Ali Baba and Aladdin, which are from the translation by Scott. The illustrations [by Monro S. Orr] are less interpretive of the spirit of the stories than those by Robinson and Parrish." Cleveland
"Best edition for a children's library." A. L. A. bkl.

Arabian nights' entertainments; selected and ed. by Andrew Lang. Longmans $1.75 (4-6)
"Twenty-six stories, including Aladdin, Sindbad the sailor, Fisherman, etc., well edited, printed and illustrated." N. Y. state lib.

Arabian nights' entertainments, with over one hundred illustrations and decorations by Louis Rhead. 1916 Harper $1.75 (4-6)

Fairy tales from the Arabian nights; ed. by E. Dixon; il. by J. D. Batten. Putnam $2.50
"Reprint of an edition noteworthy because of its illustrations. Though the plates are somewhat worn, the type is still readable; the narrower margins have resulted in a lighter weight book, easier for circulation." A. L. A. bkl.
"The Putnam edition is the text of Galland and is more complete than the Dutton edition." A. L. A. bkl.

More tales from the Arabian nights; ed. by F. J. Olcott, and il. in color by Willy Pogány. Holt $2 (4-6)
"Supplements her other volume. Thirty-three tales (exclusive of settings) based on the translation by Lane except two, the 'Story of Ahmed' and 'Story of the Princess Periezade,' which are from Scott's translation of Galland's version. Some stories are familiar and some are not." N. Y. state lib.

Stories from the Arabian nights. (Riverside lit. ser.) Houghton 56c (3-5)
Thirteen stories

Stories from the Arabian nights; retold by Laurence Housman; with drawings by Edmund Dulac. Doran $3.50 (4-6)
Contents: Ali Baba and the forty thieves; Story of the wicked half-brothers; Story of the princess of Deryabar; Story of the magic horse; Fisherman and the genie; Story of the king of the Ebony isles
"A smaller edition of the 1911 Hodder edition. While the printed part of page is the same the margins are much narrower. This contains sixteen pictures. Well bound with splendid print and paper." Bkl.
"The pictures are strictly Oriental in tone. . . . Persia has suggested most of the dress and the architecture, with here and there a touch of Cairo or Damascus. . . . The scenery belongs to fairyland or Mr. Rackham's land. But the triumph of the art lies in its suggestion of marvel, of magic, in every line. The only criticism . . . is that there is too much striving after the grotesque. . . . This curious atmosphere of magic, never

Pyle, H. Story of the Grail and the passing of Arthur. (King Arthur ser. v4) Scribner $3.50 (6-8)
"Contains 'Story of Sir Geraint,' 'Story of Sir Galahad,' and 'Passing of Arthur.' Delicacy and simplicity characterize the narrative, and workmanlike handling, the drawings, as in the earlier books, with which it is uniform." A. L. A. bkl.

Arthur, King—Continued

Sterling, M. B., comp. Story of Sir Galahad. Dutton $2 (4-6)
"Readable narrative, which preserves the charm of the original but is more intelligible to the child mind. Well printed, with large type, excellent illustrations and artistic binding." A. L. A. bkl.

Warren, M. L. R. King Arthur and his knights. Rand 75c (5-7)
"Designed primarily as a reading-book for the 5th and 6th grades, the selection of stories being made with the view of presenting strictly suitable reading for this purpose. In conception and outline the author sometimes follows the 'Morte D'Arthur, sometimes the 'Idylls of the King;' but only the more important adventures and events are included. The narrative, thus abbreviated in incident, is expanded by the insertion of descriptive and explanatory matter. The language is modern. The book may be of use in large collections as a story of chivalry or to meet school needs but for medieval spirit and literary merit it is of less value than renderings which follow the original narratives more closely." Atkinson, Alice Minerva
Introduction to American history: European beginnings. rev ed 1919 Ginn $1.08 (6-7)
"Follows in essential particulars the recommendations of the Committee of eight of the American historical association. Tries to tell vividly, simply, and fully about a few great persons and events; to maintain strict historical accuracy; and to bring the past into relation with the present at as many points as possible. Primitive man, Rome and Greece, the Northmen, the church, the crusades, medieval life in town and country, and discoveries and inventions are among the subjects treated." Publisher
"Deserves to be widely used. The illustrations are well selected and excellent." Educational review 1912

Boy who went to the east, and other Indian fairy tales. Dutton $2 (3-4)
"Of the twelve tales eight are Iroquois, while the remaining four, Boshkwadosh, The boy with the ball, The wicked magician and Fire Feather are Algonquian, the latter two being legends of the Great Lakes. The outlines of the Iroquois stories I have taken from the Reports of the Bureau of ethnology and of the New York state museum. The others were first told by Schoolcraft. . . . I have not hesitated to take some liberties with the originals, adding descriptions, details, and even in some cases minor incidents, and occasionally changing or omitting matter unsuitable for children's reading." —Same; il. in colour by Gertrude D. Hammond. Macmillan $2.40
"The Rhead book is very large with decorative border for every page and many elaborate illustrations. The Shaw book has 16 illustrations in color; Shaw is a master of color compositions. The Hammond book has only eight illustrations. There can be no doubt which of the three Bunyan would approve; surely he did not intend to write a book about draperies and armor, scales and fangs, wings and halos. The inwardness that was his theme shows hardly at all in the magnificent Rhead and Byam Shaw books. It does show in Gertrude Hammond's eight beautiful illustrations. She makes virtue winsome and vice loathsome. She really illustrates Bunyan." (Mrs. L. R. Alderman) Oregon

Cabot, Mrs. Ella (Lyman)

Ethics for children. 1910 Houghton $2 (1-6)
"Source book to aid teachers in giving systematic ethical instruction. A central topic is chosen for each of the eight grades—helpfulness, home life, work, loyalty, etc.—and under each are grouped extracts from good authors on qualities contributing to it, one being assigned to each month through the school year." A. L. A. bkl.

Cabot, Mrs. Ella (Lyman), and others

Course in citizenship and patriotism. [rev ed] 1918 Houghton $1.90 (1-8)
"Course of study for the first eight grades, which, starting with the home, treats the ever-widening circle of the child's social experience, emphasizing always a citizenship governed by good will and expressed in service. Contains suggestions for talks for each month of the school year, lists of books for the teacher, stories and poems to be read to the children. Well arranged and practical." A. L. A. bkl.
"New edition has the price raised . . . . It is almost entirely a reprint, only a few of the selections having been changed to meet war time conditions. New preface." Bkl.

Carpenter, Edmund Janes

Long ago in Greece; a book of golden hours with the old story-tellers. 1906 Little $1.30 o.p. 1924 (6-7)

"Twenty-four stories delightfully and simply retold for young people, but closely adhering to the originals, and noting the version taken as a basis in each case. Includes Homer's 'Battle of the frogs and mice,' and others not so frequently found in children's books." A. L. A. bkl.

Carpenter, Frank George

Africa. (Carpenter's new geog. reader) 1924 Am. bk. $1 (5-8)

"Carpenter's 'New geographical readers' are revisions of the original books, based upon many thousand miles of new travel and research in the countries described. The books have been rewritten in the light of these travels, and in accordance with the economic, industrial, and commercial demands of the present." Preface to "Europe"

Around the world with the children. 1921 Am. bk. 72c (2-3)

"Written for young children. 'The aim is to give the child his first view of the world as his home, to instill in him a lively interest in people and things.' Follows, in general, the modern plan of presenting geography, by presenting not only the life and customs of the various lands, but by relating these to climatic conditions." Cleveland

Some minor changes have been made from the earlier edition of 1917

Asia. (Carpenter's new geog. reader) 1923 Am. bk. $1 (5-8)

"Imaginary trip through Japan, Korea, eastern Siberia, China, Burma, India, Tibet, Persia, Arabia, Palestine and Turkey. Describes the life of the people, the government of the different countries, educational systems and political changes." Pittsburgh

Australia, our colonies, and other islands of the sea. (Carpenter's geog. reader) 1904 Am. bk. 96c (5-8)

"Personally conducts children through chief islands of the world giving excellent idea of people and resources." N. Y. state lib.

Europe. (Carpenter's new geog. reader) 1922 Am. bk. $1 (5-8)

"The new 'Europe' is equipped with a series of problem and research questions and of proposed journeys, which, worked out in conjunction with the distance and other tables at the back of the book, will, it is believed, give each pupil a practical grasp of the chief cities and other localities in Europe, as well as a working knowledge of its resources and trade." Preface

How the world is clothed. (Readers on commerce and industry) 1908 Am. bk. 96c (5-8)

North America. (Carpenter's new geog. reader) 1922 Am. bk. $1 (5-8)

"Revised and rewritten; much new material added in accordance with the economic, industrial and commercial development of the times. Includes a series of questions at the end of each chapter and twelve pages of useful tables, geographic, industrial and commercial." Bkl.

Carpenter, Frank George—Continued
South America. (Carpenter's new geog. reader) 1921 Am bk. $1 (5-8)
"Revised edition of Carpenter's geographical reader, 'South America'. . . . It is more than a revision, however, for it is a new work based upon up-to-date information gathered by the author during a recent tour of more than twenty-five thousand miles made by him in the countries described." Preface

Carpenter, Frank Oliver
Foods and their uses. (Carpenter's industrial reader) 1907 Scribner 88c (5-8)
"This book covers about the same ground as 'How the world is fed,' but considers the various foods more from the view of food values, and does not give quite so much attention to method of production." A. L. A. bkl.

Collins, Archie Frederick
Amateur mechanic. 1918 Appleton $1.50 (8)
"A book of attractively presented theories and their practical applications. Beginning with a study of the carpenter's more complex tools, such as the micrometer, level and gauge, it continues with a discussion of house building, use of materials and construction, heating and water systems, a study of the principles of machines, the use of power in industrial machinery and especially in the home. Excellent diagrams of all features discussed. Will help the boy to an understanding of elementary physics and its formulas as well as practice. Not a book for amusement as the author's 'Handicraft for boys.'" Bkl.
Book of electricity. 1916 Appleton $1.50 (7-8)
Book of magic 1915 Appleton $1.50
"A trick book and one of the best of its kind. Gives detailed directions for performing tricks which need no skill and very little practice, those which require easily made apparatus and some practice, those which require both apparatus and skill, tricks with cards, coins and handkerchiefs." A. L. A. bkl.

Book of wireless telegraph and telephones. 1922 Appleton $1.50 (7-8)

"Brings the 1915 edition up to date by adding five pages and new illustrations. Addressed especially to the boy, its simplicity and directness makes it a useful book for the amateur who desires to build his own set for wireless." Bkl.

Boy astronomer. 1923 Lothrop $1.50 (7-8)

"Beginning with an historical sketch of astronomy the author describes how to make and use star-finders, the construction and working of telescopes, and how to know the stars, the planets and their moons. The myths connected with the constellations are told, and the whole is illustrated with 175 diagrams." Bk. rev. digest

Boys' airplane book. 1919 Stokes $1.50 (7-8)

Tells the story of the airplane's development since man's earliest efforts to fly, and gives a clear description of its principles and of the construction of the most important types of aircraft, with full directions and working drawings for making models that will really fly

Boys' book of engine building. 1918 Small $1.50 (7-8)

"Tells how to make steam, hot-air, and gas engines, and how they work. Illustrated." Brooklyn

Handicraft for boys. 1918 Stokes $1.50 (6-8)

St. Louis

"Some of the ideas are rather ambitious and apt to lead to discouragement unless they can be carried out in a well equipped shop under an instructor, but there are also many simple projects, a careful study of tools, etc., which are pleasing and practical to any boy or teacher of boys. Index." Bkl.

Home handy book. 1917 Appleton $1.50 (7-8)

"A compendium of useful things to do around the average house and how to keep it in repair." Subtitle

How to fly. 1917 Appleton $1.50 (7-8)

Magic of science. 1917 Revell $1.50 (5-8)

"'A book of scientific amusements which can be performed with simple apparatus.' Illustrates an unusually large number of scientific principles for boys in the grammar grades. It will interest and spur boys' curiosity in spite of its unattractive make-up." A. L. A. bkl.

Radio amateur's hand book. 3d ed rev by Maurice L. Muhlemann. 1924 Crowell $1.50 (7-8)

"Instructs the amateur in the use of the instrument he has put together. Appendixes contain glossary of terms, charts, Morse code, bibliography, list of dealers in supplies, abbreviations, insurance requirements and excerpts of radio laws. First edition published in 1922." Bkl.

Shooting for boys. 1917 Moffat $1.50 o.p. 1924 (8)

Illustrated with diagrams and sketches

"Instructs the boy not only in good marksmanship but also in the history of weapons, the different kinds of modern guns and their mechanism, how to make targets, and how to start a shooting club." A. L. A. bkl.

Wonders of chemistry. 1922 Crowell $1.75 (8)

Colum, Padraic

Adventures of Odysseus and the tale of Troy; presented by Willy Pogány. 1918 Macmillan $2 (5-8)

" 'Padraic Colum has given the ever-absorbing romance in a manner which is equally enthralling to the adult or the boy or girl, carrying anyone who possesses imagination into the Greece of long ago. The spirit of both text and illustrations is the spirit of Homer.' Wis. bul. 'The toils and travels of Odysseus' does not give the story of Troy, and the style is more involved." Bkl.

(ed.) Arabian nights: tales of wonder and magnificence; il. by Eric Pape. (Macmillan children's classics) Macmillan $1.75 (5-6)

Boy apprenticed to an enchanter. Macmillan $1.75 (4-6)

"Arthurian, Greek, and African legends are used as a background for this new fairy tale, written with the author's own charm and flavor." Cleveland

"Herein one may read how Eean, the fisherman's son, and Bird-of-Gold, who was the bramble gatherer's daughter, saved the magic mirror of the Babylonians and were pursued o'er land and sea by the evil enchanter, Zabulun." Pittsburgh

Boy in Eirinn. (Little schoolmate ser.) Dutton $2 (5-7)

"Delightful picture of the everyday life of an Irish peasant lad, into which are introduced the Irish legends and hero tales of the 'Children of Lir,' 'Finn MacCoul,' 'King Brian' and 'Daniel O'Connell.' " Cleveland

Boy who knew what the birds said. Macmillan $1.75 (4-5)

"Eight stories based on Irish tales; they have quaint turns of speech, and are filled with the traditional fairy tale humor and imagination, with charming pictures in black and white by Dugald Stewart Walker." Bkl.

Children of Odin. Macmillan $2 (5-7)

"The stories of the Norse sagas, from the twilight of the gods to the destruction of Asgard, are told in a connected narrative that flows in a simple, rhythmic prose sometimes poetic. Four color plates and several line drawings by Willy Pogány. For children from ten years on." Bkl.

Children who followed the piper; il. by Dugald Walker. Macmillan $1.75 (5-7)

"A fanciful story of what happened to the children who followed the Pied Piper under the hill. Written with charm and in poetic style." Cleveland

Girl who sat by the ashes; il. by Dugald Stewart Walker. Macmillan $1.75 (6-7)

"A weaving together of several variants of the Cinderella story into a quaint romance which has elements of symbolism. Will appeal to older girls and to occasional adults rather than to children of the fairy tale age. Charming illustrations." Cleveland

Golden fleece and the heroes who lived before Achilles; il. by Willy Pogány. Macmillan $2 (6-8)

"Beautifully told; Mr. Colum preserves the spirit of the Greek tales and weaves them into a magic whole. In this he is aided by the spirited drawings of Willy Pogány." Bkl.

(ed.) Island of the mighty; il. by Wilfred Jones. Macmillan $2.25 (6-8)

"Being the hero stories of Celtic Britain retold from the Mabinogion." Subtitle

"In order to make certain incidents clear and to get rid of passages that are obscure or repetitious in the stories as they have come down to us, I have worked over them, making certain condensations and certain rearrangements. But I have not attempted to make any far-reaching changes in the language that now seems so native to these Welsh stories, Lady Charlotte Guest's rhythmical English." Introduction

"The stories live as they have not lived for boys and girls before, with a glow and color upon them that bids fair to keep them alive for years to come." A. C. Moore in Bookman

King of Ireland's son; il. by Willy Pogány. Macmillan $2.25 (6-8)

Christmas stories. Dutton (Everyman's lib.) 80c; lib binding $1 (7-8)

Cricket on the hearth. Putnam holiday ed $1.75; Rand (Canterbury classics) 60c
"Dot Peerybingle and John the Carrier, Tilly Slowboy and the baby, the sweet blind Bertha, and her father, easily become the friends of the children. For some reasons it is the best work of Dickens to begin with; the plot is less involved, the motives simpler than in most of his books, and the peculiarities of his style are less exaggerated." Prentice and Power
"Illustrations of the Rand edition are not entirely satisfactory; aside from that its form is very attractive for its small price." Cleveland

—Same; il. in color by C. E. Brock. Dutton $1 o.p. 1924 (7-8)
The Doran edition il. by Hugh Thomson, o.p. 1924

David Copperfield (7-8)
"Like many fond parents, I have in my heart of hearts a favorite child, and his name is David Copperfield." Charles Dickens

Dickens's children; il. by Jessie Willcox Smith. 1912 Scribner $1 temp. o.p. 1924 (6-8)

Dombey and son (8)
"The sad story of little Paul and his devoted sister is relieved by the cheery picture of old Captain Cuttle with his nautical expressions and Mr. Toots, who suffers from shyness and love. The scene of the novel is laid in England about 1848." N. Y. city

Life and adventures of Nicholas Nickleby (7-8)
"A novel with a purpose, written to expose the neglect of education in England, and particularly the condition of the Yorkshire schools at that time." Pittsburgh

Magic fishbone. Warne $1.50 (5-6)
"Fairy tale of a wonderful fishbone which gave the Princess Alicia what she wished, provided she wished for it at the right time." Utica
"Delightful new edition of this classic with colored illustrations and many line drawings by F. D. Bedford. Very light binding." Bkl.

—Same; il by Maginel W. Enright. McKay $3.50 (5-7)

"A beautiful gift edition, large type, margins, good paper and binding, eight colored illustrations by Maginel Wright Enright. The illustrations are more decorative than pictorial, are bright with use of flat, clean color, show a happy selection of dramatic moments and perhaps make a more instant appeal to children than those of the Scribner edition illustrated by George Wharton Edwards, though perhaps Mr. Edwards has been more faithful in his depiction of the costuming. These look like Maarken." Bkl.

"The youngest children enjoy the pictures." Hewins

Birds worth knowing. (Little nature lib.) 1917 Doubleday, N. $1.75 (4-8)
"Sixteen chapters adapted and selected from 'Birds every child should know' with descriptions for identification from 'Bird neighbors,' one chapter adapted from 'How to attract the wild birds,' and two chapters on material from 'Birds that hunt and are hunted.' The descriptive tables make the book more useful for bird study than 'Birds every child should know,' altho, because the birds are grouped under families rather than colors, it has more worth as general information than as an aid to identification. Illustrations are colored but not as good as those of the other books. Color key and index." A. L. A. bkl.

How to attract the birds. 1902 Doubleday $1.25 temp. o.p. 1924 (6-8)
"Tells about homes of birds, nest buildings, songs and travels of birds, what birds do for us, etc." Wis.

Wild flowers worth knowing. (Little nature lib.) 1917 Doubleday, N. $1.75 (4-8)
"Adapted from 'Nature's garden' by Asa Don Dickinson. It is somewhat simpler in description and text, contains fewer illustrations, and the flowers are arranged in family groups rather than under colors." A. L. A. bkl.

Fabre, Jean Henri
Animal life in field and garden; tr. by Florence Constable Bicknell. 1921 Century $2.50 (6-8)
"The author had the gift of communicating to his readers the passionate interest with which he studies the lives of the little animals of the earth. He writes of the birds, insects and reptiles that are harmful or helpful to man." St. Louis
Book of insects; retold from A. Teixeira de Mattos' translation of Fabre's "Souvenirs entomologiques" by Mrs. Rodolph Stawell; il. by E. J. Detmold. 1921 Dodd $5 (6-8)
"Young readers will delight in knowing what Fabre has observed about the beetle, cicada, mantis, glow-worm, mason-wasp, grasshopper, cricket, locust, and other winged mysteries." Literary digest
Field, forest and farm; tr. by F. C. Bicknell. 1919 Century $2.50 (6-8)
"Like the author's other nature books this opens both an entertaining and a practical field for observation of soils, plants and animals. For elementary grades it is the most pleasing reading if occasional aid is given on scientific terms, and difficult expressions. No index." Bkl.
Insect adventures; sel. from A. Teixeira de Mattos' tr. of Fabre's "Souvenirs entomologiques"; retold for young people by L. S. Hasbrouck. 1917 Dodd $2.50 (6-8)
"The book makes a big appeal to the young imagination in such expressions as the caddisworm 'pirates,' the 'insect submarines,' and the 'spider's telegraph wires.' His life stories of familiar insects will prove fascinating." Bk. rev. digest
Life of the caterpillar; tr. by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos. 1916 Dodd $2.50 (6-8)
"These fourteen chapters comprise all that the author has written on butterflies and moths or their caterpillars. They have all the authority and charm of his earlier works. Three chapters were also included in his 'Social life in the insect world.'" A. L. A. bkl.
Life of the fly, with which are interspersed some chapters of autobiography; tr. by A. Teixeira de Mattos. 1913 Dodd $2 (6-8)
"Profound scientific observation, combined with a delightful style and unflagging enthusiasm humanize for us the life of the fly. Simple and readable in a good translation." Wis. bul.
Life of the grasshopper; tr. from the French by A. Teixeira de Mattos. 1917 Dodd $2 (6-8)
"Twenty essays treating of grasshoppers, crickets, locusts, cicadae, and cuckoo-spit, which have all the charm of his other scientific essays. Eleven of these have appeared in 'Social life in the insect world.'" A. L. A. bkl.
Life of the spider; tr. by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos. 1919 Dodd $2 (6-8)
"Records of observations of the life histories of several kinds of spiders, delightfully written and well translated. Perhaps of more general interest than the earlier selections from this naturalist's writings that have been translated. An appreciation is furnished by Maeterlinck, of whose 'Life of the bee' this work is a reminder because of its high literary quality." Bkl.

Mason-bees; tr. by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos. 1914 Dodd $2 (6-8)

"Record of painstaking and affectionate observations of these bees, which, together with a projected volume on 'The bramble-bees and others,' will form an extended study of the wild bee. In a particularly interesting chapter on insect psychology, the scientist states again his conservative conclusions in the 'reason versus instinct' controversy. Includes chapters on red ants, parasites, cats." A. L. A. Bkl.

Our humble helpers; tr. from the French by F. C. Bicknell. 1918 Century $2.50 (6-8)

"Talks about the habits and characteristics of domestic poultry, dogs, cats, sheep, goats, cows, pigs and horses, showing a rare understanding of what is of interest to a child." Cleveland

Secret of everyday things; tr. by F. C. Bicknell. 1920 Century $2.50 (6-8)

"An uncle chats with his nieces and nephews about all sorts of familiar things and phenomena—cotton, matches, bread, air, sound, etc.—and gives scientifically accurate and interesting explanations. More of the topics belong to physical sciences than in the author's other books. Would be useful in junior high schools." Bkl.

Story-book of science; tr. by Florence C. Bicknell. 1917 Century $2.50 (6-8)

"Stories of rocks, plants, flowers, fruits, and the sea told for the children with the author's well-known charm and knowledge." Pratt quarterly

This earth of ours; tr. by Percy F. Bicknell. 1923 Century $2.50 (6-8)

"A general account of the earth is given; seas, mountains and great rivers, glaciers, volcanoes and earthquakes described and explained. The familiar dialogue form has been discarded and a simple direct style employed that retains the clearness and charm that characterize the other books of the series." Bkl.

Wonder book of chemistry; tr. by Florence C. Bicknell. 1922 Century $2.50 (6-8)

"Entertaining and simply written book which will interest children in the study of chemistry. All experiments described are simple and safe." Cleveland

"The first volume of an intended series. Presents the idea of saving and replenishing our natural resources for economic purposes. Written with an understanding of the interests of children. Has science material for any of the grades, though told primarily for middle or upper grades." Bkl.

Stories of the rocks and minerals for the grammar grades. 1903 Educational $1 (7-8)

"'Stories' is somewhat misleading. Directly instructive, in simple style." N. Y. state lib.

Western United States: a geographical reader. 1904 Heath $1.36 (6-8)

"Striking and interesting physical features and chapters on the history, exploration, and resources." Oregon

Fairchild family. Sherwood, M. M. B.

Fairford, Ford

Cuba. (Peeps at many lands) 1913 Macmillan $1.25 (6-7)

"Rather uninterestingly written book which contains much information, specially about tobacco raising, cigar making, bananas, pineapples and sugar. It shows the influence of the United States in helping establish a strong form of government there. Will be more useful for reference and supplementary reading than as a travel book." A. L. A. bkl.

Newfoundland. (Peeps at many lands) 1921 (6-7)

With Bealby, J. T. Canada

Reprint of the edition published separately 1912

"Account of Newfoundland's industries and history, with chapters on the Newfoundland dog, the perils of the sea, and the lives and adventures of sailors and fishermen." Pittsburgh

Fairham, William

Carpentry for beginners. (Woodworker ser.) [1920?] Lippincott $1.50 (7-8)

"An elementary book, of English origin, for amateurs and boys. Contains dimensioned drawings and directions for making thirty-six housekeeping articles; describes woodworking tools and their uses, together with other useful information for the amateur carpenter. Well illustrated." Donald Hendry

Czechoslovak fairy tales; with il. and decorations by Jan Matulka. Harcourt $2.25 (4-5)
"Fifteen folk tales. Among them, the fanciful tale of the wood maiden and the golden birch leaves, the story of the seer who went in quest of the flaming horse and of the charcoal-burner's son who married a princess." Pittsburgh
"A very readable collection." Cleveland

Laughing prince; a book of Jugoslav fairy tales and folk tales. Harcourt $2.50 (3-8)
"Fourteen southern Slav stories including Bulgarian tales and those of other Balkan peoples not within the new state of Jugoslavia. Well told in humorous vein, with modern twists, and relatively unfamiliar." N. Y. state lib.
"I wish more time had been spent on 'The laughing prince.' His free rendering of 'The shoemaker's apron' was better work and his introduction more in keeping with it. Jay Van Everen's drawings are something more than a series of decorations. There is a very real imaginative quality in each story as he has seen it and lived in it and one feels he has more in reserve. The make-up of this book is attractive and it should be of general interest." A. C. Moore in Bookman

Mighty Mikko. Harcourt $2.25 (4-5)
"Fairy and folk tales from the Finnish. This rerendering of stories hitherto locked away in the Kalevala is a capital piece of work and reveals a fine appreciation of the storehouse from which Mr. Fillmore drew. Jay Van Everen has illustrated the book in black and white with colored frontispiece." A. C. Moore in Bookman

Shoemaker's apron; a second book of Czechoslovak fairy tales and folk tales. Harcourt $2.50 (4-5)
"An interesting collection of twenty stories drawn from original sources and retold with simple charm. Most of them have their variants in other countries." Bkl.

Wizard of the north. Harcourt $2 (4-5)
"The 'Kalevala' is here retold simply and with power and beauty. Baldwin's 'Sampo' is perhaps more scholarly, but this version will appeal to a wider circle of readers and thus accomplish the author's purpose of familiarizing boys and girls with the epic." Wis. bul.

Finger, Charles J.
Tales from silver lands; il. with woodcuts by Paul Honoré. Doubleday $3.50 (5-7)
"Mr. Charles J. Finger has here transcribed legendary stories out of South America, based upon tales that he took down at first hand from the Indians he met in his wanderings. . . . There are nineteen tales in this book and all reflect the flavor of the lands of their origin. Mr. Finger's service in gathering them is a valuable one, and in the telling he remains a self-effacing troubadour, never diverting the interest of the reader from his story to himself." Books

What shall we do now? new enl ed 1922 Stokes $2 (5-7)
"Over five hundred games and pastimes; a book of suggestions for children's games and employments." Subtitle
New edition of a book first published in America in 1907, as a revision of "Three hundred games and pastimes," by E. V. Lucas and E. Lucas, which was then out of print. By agreement with the English publishers, the names of the original compilers were omitted and the book designated by the name of its American editor. The English edition has since been reissued. The American revision consisted in partial rewriting, substitution of American terms for British, and addition of material about other games. Publisher's statement

Fisher, Elizabeth Florette
Resources and industries of the United States. 1919 Ginn 96c (6-8)
Appendix gives statistics of manufactures and foreign commerce; there is an index
"The attempt of the author has been to present to young people a vivid and accurate picture of the more important of the industries of the United States. Further, the aim has been to show the factors, natural and economic, which have led to the development of these industries; to make clear the position which the United States holds in the world of commerce as a result of its great resources; to show the urgent necessity for the conservation of these resources and to point out the means by which this conservation may be brought about. . . . The maps are modern, and many of them are unique. The rainfall map is modified from the 1917 rainfall map published by the Weather bureau. The relief map is notable for the unusual accuracy and detail with which the western United States is portrayed, and the temperature map, for its clearness and simplicity. The soil map, which points out the distribution and origin of the soils of the United States, is the first of its kind ever simplified for young people. . . . The chief sources for the book are the publications of the United States Geological survey, the Department of Agriculture, and the Bureau of mines, and the Report of the National conservation commission." Boys' book of battles; the story of 11 famous land combats. maps 1919 Crowell $1.75 (7-8)

"Bunker Hill, Saratoga, Yorktown, Austerlitz, Waterloo, Gettysburg, Sedan, Verdun, Second Marne, Argonne-Meuse. Uses authentic material sometimes quoting from Brady, Creasy, personal accounts, etc. Spirited accounts. Good illustrations; some from old prints." Bkl.

"An interesting and well written book." Wis. bul.

Boys' book of sea fights; famous naval engagements from Drake to Beatty. 1920 Crowell $1.75 (7-8)

"Stories of sea fights from the time of Sir Francis Drake to the battle of Jutland in 1916. Not confined to any one country, but takes up the important naval contests of the world." Cleveland

Every boy's book of handicraft, sports and amusements. 1913 Page $2.75 (6-8)

"Cyclopedic treatment of boys' activities, sometimes inadequately hinting at technical subjects but treating many topics well, as in the chapters on woodcraft, carpentry and games. For boys from ten to twenty. Illustrated by 700 diagrams. New edition has index." A. L. A. bkl.

Heroes of the wilds. 1923 Crowell $1.75 (6-8)

"The lives and exploits of men to whom civilization owes much. The forest ranger, the cowboy, the explorer, made real by personal accounts of their bravery and perserverance. Companion to 'Work-a-day heroes.'" Bkl.

Work-a-day heroes. 1921 Crowell $1.75 (6-8)

"Similar to Moffatt's 'Careers of danger and daring.' Not so well done, but contains more up-to-date material so is a desirable addition even for the library which has the older book." Wis. bul.

Young citizen's own book. 1920 Crowell $1.75 (6-8)

"After an interesting imaginary visit to Washington, the boy or girl is very apt to continue this readable account of how our country is governed and how its people act as citizens. Differs from other books on this subject in that it is not a textbook, but is meant to be read for pleasure as well as information. Has some helpful charts on elective systems." Bkl.

"A boy's experiences as a trader between white men and Indians are here portrayed in a story which dates back to the year 1736." Providence

Jim Mason, scout. Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"Follows the adventures of this young trader begun in 'Jim Mason, backwoodsman.' The story includes an account of Braddock's defeat and reaches a climax in the expedition against Crown Point when Jim and his friend Kichkinet prove their bravery and resourcefulness and the loyalty of the Mohawk scouts." Bkl.

Red arrow. Harper $1.75 (6-7)
"A story in which the white man does not enter, but which is wholly Indian in atmosphere and treatment. (G. S. C.)" St. Louis

Running Fox. Appleton $1.75 (5-8)
"Every page a thrill for the boy who loves the fight and the chase. Running Fox, son of a Delaware chief, sets out to prove his worth as a warrior. He is given the mission of finding the 'mysterious medicine bundle' which gives the Mohawks power over their neighbors. With his friend, Spotted Deer, the youth undertakes the adventure, and by killing the Mohawk chief in battle, brings peace to his people. Told with a touch of real Indian lore." Bkl.

Three Sioux scouts. Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"White Otter, a Sioux war chief, and two companions, while watching for buffalo, discover a band of Kiowas on their way to attack the Cheyennes whom White Otter determines to warn. All three Indians take part in the exciting events that follow." Bkl.
Sequel to "The war trail"

War trail. Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"In an effort to recover ponies driven away by marauding Blackfeet, White Otter, a young war-chief of the Sioux, joins his friend Lean Wolf in making war upon the thieving tribe. Interwoven with the swiftly moving narrative is much interesting information of Indian life, customs, and legends." Bkl.
Sequel to "White Otter"

White Otter. Appleton $1.75 (6-8)
"More adventures of White Otter. Tells how he earned the headdress of eagle feathers after many battles by rescuing his chief from the camp of the Pawnees. 'The red arrow' tells of his previous adventures." A. L. A. bkl.

White wolf. Appleton $1.75 (7-8)
"A romantic tale of Indian life in the old days. The wars between Delawares and Mohawks recall Cooper's Pathfinder tales. Indian legends and mystic lore are interwoven with the narrative." Outlook

Gregory, Isabella Augusta (Persse), lady

Golden apple. 1916 Putnam $2 (7-8)
"Wherein the King of Ireland's son, for the sake of his father, goes in search of the apple of healing which grows in the witch's garden. The quaint Irish phraseology of the folk tale adds charm to a play which has much of the imaginative and humorous quality of a folk tale." Cleveland

"A unique and valuable book embodying Dr. Grenfell's talks to his own children, with original and amusing drawings." A. C. Moore in Bookman
"In this book Dr. Grenfell tells his two boys, thirteen and eleven years old, about our bodies. He tells how they are made (anatomy), how they work (physiology), what is good and what is bad for them (hygiene), and how they reproduce themselves (generation). . . . He has written with so much cleverness that the story is full of fun, and in such a way that it is easy to remember. . . . This book treats a vital subject in an unusual and fascinating way and will be a great help to many children and parents." Bookshop for boys and girls

School history of the United States. maps rev ed 1920 Am. bk. $1.60 (7-8)
"A clear, brief history for upper grades. It gives a minimum of space to the traditional historical events which pupils know from stories at an earlier age, but emphasizes the industrial development and method of government and the big American problems such as labor and capital, immigration, tariff, conservation and Negro questions. Good maps and illustrations, some colored and some cuts. Chapter questions, and bibliographies, the latter not always from the latest sources, but giving references to historical fiction which may be useful. Appendix has United States constitution, dates of state admissions and table of presidents. Index. Well made. Good print." Bkl.
"Professor Hart has . . . succeeded in bringing clearly before the minds of children the main features of the way our government is carried on by simple descriptions of such things as nominating conventions, national banks, and the tariff.' " (Nation) Pratt quarterly

Canterbury tales. Scribner $2.25 (5-8)

"Prefaced by an account of Chaucer's life and the London of his day. Gives portions of a number of the tales. Original and modern text in parallel columns. Eight colored pictures, and a number of small woodcuts by the author." Am. L. E.

"Though possibly only an exceptional child will enjoy the book, it brings the youthful reader closer to the time of Chaucer than any other version for children." Arnold

Former title: "Chaucer for children."

Hawes, Charles Boardman

Dark frigate. Atlantic monthly $2 (7-8)

Won John Newbery Medal in 1924

"The story of Philip Marsham, who lived in the time of King Charles, has a fine flavor of Bideford and the Devon country about it. It is beautifully written." Independent

Great quest. Atlantic monthly $2 (7-8)

"Combines excellent workmanship and knowledge of seafaring with thrill upon thrill. The story concerns a young New Englander who in 1826 sets out in the brig, well named 'Adventure,' becomes involved in experiences, African witch doctors, missionaries, slave sellers and a lovely girl who brings the hero back to quiet New England. For older boys and girls." Bkl.

Mutineers. Atlantic monthly $2 (7-8)

"At the age of sixteen, Benjamin Lathrop put out from Salem harbor, a green hand on the Island Princess, a sailing ship bound for Canton, China, with a cargo of ginseng and woolen goods and in the hold of the ship a fortune of one hundred thousand dollars in gold. There followed a voyage in which the boy played a man's part through appalling times of murder and mutiny. A straight forward narration of absorbing interest. A. I. H." St. Louis

Hawkes, Clarence

Dapples of the circus. Lothrop $1.50 (5-7)

Housman, Laurence
Doorway in fairyland. Harcourt $2 (7-8)
"Twelve notable modern fairy tales selected from four volumes published before 1905 and long out of print. A poet's stories, they are finely conceived and beautifully told, appealing to imaginative older children and to adults. Very distinguished illustrations, wood engravings, designed by the author and cut by his sister, Clemence Housman." N. Y. state lib.

Moonshine & clover. Harcourt $2 (7-8)
"Selection of charming fairy tales for children and adults reprinted from editions appearing between 1894 and 1904 now out of print. These stories have the qualities of traditional folk tales enhanced by Mr. Housman's imaginative power. The illustrations are designed by the author and engraved by his sister Clemence." Wis. bul.
Almost more adult than juvenile

(ed.) Stories from the Arabian nights; with [16] drawings by Edmund Dulac. Doran $3.50 (4-6)
"The pictures are strictly Oriental in tone. . . Persia has suggested most of the dress and the architecture, with here and there a touch of Cairo or Damascus. . . . The scenery belongs to fairyland or Mr. Rackham's land. But the triumph of the art lies in its suggestion of marvel, of magic, in every line. The only criticism . . . is that there is too much striving after the grotesque. . . . This curious atmosphere of magic, never more brilliantly suggested than in these delightful drawings, enters especially into the scenes

A little boy lost. Knopf $1.25 (6-8)
"Lured from his home by the vision of 'the false water,' the little boy wanders far in the wilderness meeting many strange people. The beautiful lady of the mountain becomes his mother and the little men who live under the earth make clothes for him; he sees the wonders of the hills and plays with a leopard and other wild beasts. The story is full of fairy imaginings and of the quality which the author says he liked best as a child, 'the little thrills that nature itself gave me, which half frightened and fascinated at the same time, the wonder and mystery of it all.'" Jackson, Bennett Barron, Deming, Norma Helen, and Bemis, Katharine Isabel (comps.) Opportunities of today for boys and girls. 1921 Century 85c (7-8)
"In preparing this volume, we have made no attempt to treat the subject exhaustively. It has been our endeavor to present only a few of the many occupations that are open to the boys and girls of today, with the hope that the study of these may provoke interest and inquiry in the minds of the young readers." Prefatory note
"The contributions are in the main intelligible to adolescent boys and girls. In some instances the material may be beyond their reach, but it is in just such places that the vocational counselor has his opportunity. The book will be most useful in schools attended by children of the well-to-do for the reason that the major emphasis is given to the professions, and other vocations demanding specialized training on or above the high-school level." Famous Indian chiefs. 1909 Page $2 (5-8)

"Though lacking in interest and literary merit, and somewhat unreliable, it is fair to both sides and will be attractive to many boys over 12 years of age. Includes only 3 chiefs that are to be found in Howard's 'Famous Indian chiefs I have known.'" A. L. A. bkl.

"Accounts of the struggles between Indian and white man from the time when Powhatan met the first European settlers to the great Sioux uprising in 1876." Utica

Famous privateersmen and adventurers of the sea. 1911 Page $2 (6-8)

"Thrilling stories of the rovings, cruises, escapades and sea-battles of 15 privateersmen and buccaneers, excluding pirates. Spirited to the point of bloodthirstiness, and will be eagerly read. Though there are some inaccuracies, the collection has considerable historical value." A. L. A. bkl.

Famous scouts. 1910 Page $2 (6-8)

"There are some historical inaccuracies but they are not of sufficient importance to detract from the usefulness of the book. Of special interest to Boy scouts." A. L. A. bkl.

"Includes trappers, pioneers, and soldiers of the frontier, giving among others the lives of Daniel Boone, David Crockett, Kit Carson, Lewis and Clark and Sam Houston." Oregon

Our little viking cousin of long ago. (Little cousins of long ago ser.) 1916 Page $1 (5)

"Biarne, the hero of the story, comes to this land in the first viking ships with Leif Ericson. The book gives the customs, some of the stories and description of the journey to Vinland and to Greenland. Nothing specially inspiring or interesting but the material is not so easily accessible in other books." A. L. A. bkl.

Johnston, Emma L., and Barnum, Madalene Demarest

Book of plays for little actors. 1907 Am. bk. 52c (2-3)

"Over 60 myths and legends, some in verse, compiled from the annual reports of the Bureau of American ethnology, the publications of the United States geographical survey, and from the works of other ethnologists. Told in the abrupt style of the Indian, interestingly illustrated by many Indian drawings." A. L. A. bkl.
(ed.) Myths and legends of the Mississippi valley and the Great lakes. 1914 McClurg $1.50 o.p. 1924 (6-8)
"Compiled from the works of Schoolcraft, A. E. Jenks, James Mooney, and George Catlin. Some of the stories are specially interesting in connection with the stories of Hiawatha and 'Brer Rabbit.' Illustrations are from reports of Bureau of American ethnology." A. L. A. bkl.
(ed.) Myths and legends of the Pacific northwest. 1910 McClurg $1.50 o.p. 1924 (6-8)
"Collection from authoritative sources of such legends and myths as show no trace of the white man's influence, nor of the Indian's lower nature. Some are told in the simple direct manner of the Indians; others are literal translations from the ethnologic records of the government. The pictures from photographs of Indians and of the country, are exceptionally charming." A. L. A. bkl.

Keeler, Harriet Louise
Our early wild flowers. 1916 Scribner $1.75 (8)
"Popular, usable and attractive pocket guide to the flowers of the Northern states east of the Mississippi valley. Arrangement is by families. For each flower there is a brief, non-technical systematic description followed by a popular discussion. At the end is a color key, under which the arrangement is by easily distinguished physical characteristics, an improvement over the ordinary color key. Reference to occurrence in Ohio makes the book specially useful in that state. Well illustrated with halftone and color plates and cuts in the text." A. L. A. bkl.
Our garden flowers. 1910 Scribner $3 (7-8)
"A fairly complete guide to garden flowers and herbs. Most of the plants are illustrated, the botanical features are given briefly, and there are interesting and useful comments on history, care, and uses." Pittsburgh

"Scientifically accurate with a distinct literary flavor. 340 illustrations." Prentice and Power
Our northern autumn. 1920 Scribner $1.75 (8)
"For each flower there is a brief botanical description followed by a popular account. Chapters on leaves, fruits, October days and November, present delightful pictures of the developing season from the high tide of color until the trees are bare. Six color plates, numerous halftones and line drawings." Bkl.
Our northern shrubs and how to identify them. 1903 Scribner $3 (7-8)
"The shrubs described in this volume are those which find their most congenial home in the region extending from the Atlantic ocean to the Mississippi river, and from Canada to the northern boundaries of our Southern states; together with those imported shrubs which have so long adorned our yards and gardens that we have almost forgotten their foreign origin." Knipe, Alden Arthur
Captain of the eleven. Harper $1.75 (6-8)
"Lively story of school athletics, summer sports and adventures, telling how a motherless boy proved his pluck to a rather skeptical and neglectful father. Has some fresh and thrilling incidents and rather more human interest than the average boy's story." N. Y. state lib.

Last lap. Harper $1.75 (6-8)
"Continues the school career of Bunny Reeves, hero of the 'Captain of the eleven.' Track athletics and an experience at a Barnegat life-saving station sustain the interest, and Bunny's manly attitude toward teachers, betting and professionalism in athletics distinguish this among recent school stories." N. Y. state lib.

Diantha's quest. Macmillan $1.75 (6-8)
"A tale of the Argonauts of '49' which relates the adventures of Diantha Carter and her mother in journeying overland in California in search of her father who preceded them. The mystery of his disappearance is solved and the family are reunited in the end." St. Louis

Flower of fortune. Century $1.75 (6-8)
"Older girls will like this story of Judith Van Taarl, a capable young orphan of sixteen, back in Dutch-English old New York. The colonial atmosphere is especially good." Wis. bul.

Girls of '64. Macmillan $1.75 (6-8)
"Dorothea Drummond visits her cousins in Georgia at the time of the Civil war. Being neither of the North nor of the South, she sees both sides and when opportunity comes she aids a Union soldier escaping from Andersonville and she is also instrumental in saving the life of her cousin April's Confederate lover. An excellent picture of the home life of the girls and women of the South during the war." St. Louis

Lost little lady. Century $1.75 (6-8)
"How Nora rescued the little lady, loved her, and lost her. How she was found and how neither she nor her father were what everyone suspects them of being. An entertaining tale with the Civil war as a background and kidnappers and spies in the fore." A. L. A. bkl.

Lucky sixpence. Century $1.75 (6-8)
"An English girl's adventures in coming alone to America at the time of the revolution, her capture and escape from a British man-of-war and her experiences with British and American notables while the head of her cousin's house in Philadelphia. The heroine's rôle is overdrawn, but the book has some value as a story of adventure and for its historical interest." Cleveland

Maid of old Manhattan. Macmillan $1.75 (7-8)
"There is a mystery about the identity of Annetje, who has been brought up in New Amsterdam, and it is not solved until the English take the town. A good picture of the times with romance enough to please girls about fourteen." Dial

Maid of '76. Macmillan $1.75 (6-8)

Mayflower maid. Century $1.75 (7-8)
"How little Barbara Gorges, timid and ashamed of her fears, grows to be a self-reliant and brave maid of Plymouth colony, and how Myles Standish woos and wins her. A. I. H." St. Louis

Peg o' the ring; a maid of Denewood. Century $1.75 (7-8)

"A series for children from ten to sixteen, or for foreigners who are becoming acquainted with American institutions. Their purpose is to exalt home life and pleasures, the joys and beauties of outdoor life, and especially American ideals. The three later books of the series have descriptions of famous homes, and book four has a section on the building, management, sanitation and beauty of the home. These books have no indexes, but the contents are arranged by subject. They are not the ordinary form of supplementary reader, and not the type which usually find a place in children's libraries, but may be of value now because of the subjects which they treat." Bkl.

Indian Old-man stories; il. by Charles M. Russell. Scribner $2.50 (4-5)
"A continuation of a former collection, 'Indian why stories.' The stories are Chippewa myths about Old-man, a mischievous undergod whom Manitou has entrusted with the creation of the world. They tell why children lose their teeth, why our sight fails with age, why dogs howl at night, and many other nature secrets. Some of the legends have been used by Grinnell; others are new." Bkl.

Bun, a wild rabbit. Penn $1.25 (3-5)
"A composite biography of veritable happenings in the life of a number of rabbits. So pleasantly and sympathetically told by the writer that one is amazed when confident in the ability of the rabbit to escape, he permits a neighbor to turn his dogs loose upon Bun. Interesting illustrations by the author, of animals, all of which, we are assured, still live in their wild state within the limits of the third largest city in the United States. Free from personification." Bkl.
Gray squirrel. Penn $1.25 (3-5)

Anne's terrible good nature, and other stories for children. Macmillan $2.50 (5-7)

"Eleven stories about children, told to children with a certain buttonholing familiarity and directness, which both captures their attention and diverts it from the story-teller's evident enjoyment of child nature." N. Y. state lib.

(comp.) Another book of verses for children. 1907 Macmillan $1.50 temp. o.p. 1924 (3-8)

"Admirable selections, chosen partly with view to reading aloud, a large proportion not being found in other children's anthologies. They range from Shakespeare, Blake, Tennyson, to modern nonsense rhymes. Attractively illustrated." N. Y. state lib.

(comp.) Book of verses for children. Holt $2; popular ed $1 (3-8)

"About 200 selections, ranging from Robert Browning's Pippa's song to Edward Lear's Nonsense rhymes." N. Y. state lib.

(comp.) Forgotten tales of long ago. 1906 Stokes $2.50 (4-5)

"Twenty stories from early writers—1790 to 1830—with three later contributions. Interesting to the occasional child who fancies quaint tales, and to all students of children's literature. Well printed and illustrated, and attractively bound." A. L. A. bkl.

Four and twenty toilers. McDevitt-Wilson $2.25

"Verses celebrating the powers and attractions, or lack of them, of twenty-four homely English callings—shipbuilding, cobbling, gardening, building, farming, dairying, etc.—as seen through the child's eyes, and illustrations, on opposite page, picturing the man at his work. The verses are very simple and direct, and full of humor, the colored drawings by F. D. Bedford delightful both in conception and execution." A. L. A. bkl.

(comp.) Old fashioned tales. Stokes $2.50 (4-5)

"Nineteen charmingly printed and illustrated moral classics." N. Y. state lib.

Slowcoach. Macmillan $2 (6-8)

McFee, Mrs. Inez Nellie (Canfield)

Boys and girls of many lands. 1917 Crowell $1.75 (6-7)

"Glimpses of the life in many countries and around the world, fairly well told. . . . The contrasts keep the interest, tho the sudden transitions, from Porto Rico to Russia, for example, are almost bewildering." A. L. A. bkl

Stories of American inventions. 1921 Crowell $1.60 (6-8)

Contents: Young teacher's ingenuity; "Fulton's folly"; McCormick and the reaper; Morse and the telegraph; Sewing machine; Bell telephone; Edison and the electric light; How the phonograph was born; Submarine; Something about the "movies"; Aeroplane; Electric furnace

"Filled with an unfailing interest for the boy who likes to read the stories of successful achievement." F. L. Darrow in Publisher's weekly

Story of Idylls of the king, adapted from Tennyson. 1912 Stokes $3

Tree book. 1912 Stokes $2 (5-8)

"Part 1, The life and work of the trees, tells how to interpret their sign language and how they grow and gives the record of the year's work from the rising of the sap to the falling of the leaves. Under part 2, the kinds of trees, all the important tree families are considered with the legends and folk-lore that time has woven about them. Part 3, The forester and his work, gives an idea of the breadth and scope of the subject of forestry with some interesting details of tree botany and of the scientific possibilities in laboratory work. The book has fifteen illustrations from photographs." Bk. rev. digest

Malory, Sir Thomas
Book of King Arthur and his noble knights; stories from Morte d'Arthur, by Mary Macleod. Stokes $2.50 (5-7)
"Follows Malory closely and is more readable and popular than Lanier's 'Boys' King Arthur.'" Oregon
Boy's King Arthur; ed. by Sidney Lanier. Scribner $2.25 (6-7)
"Rearranged and simplified, but preserving the form and language of the original. For older children." Am. L. E.
Good reprint, 1924, at 72c

Malory, Sir Thomas—Continued
—Same; ed. by Sidney Lanier; il. by N. C. Wyeth. Scribner $2.50 (6-7)
"In this edition of Mr. Lanier's classic Boy's King Arthur omission has been made of some minor passages and introductory matter—all the greater tales, those of Arthur, Launcelot, Tristam, Gareth, Galahad, Percival, and the Holy Grail being retained." A. L. A. bkl.
Death of King Arthur
In Norton's Heart of oak books, v5, p64-8 (6-7)
King Arthur stories; by L. O. Stevens and E. F. Allen. (Riverside lit. ser.) Houghton 44c (6-7)
"An admirable and attractive cheap version. Omits some archaisms, but follows the form and diction of original, preserving its fine simplicity of style. Eight halftone illustrations, five reproduced from Abbey paintings." N. Y. state lib.

Malot, Hector Henri
Nobody's boy. (Sans famille.) 1916 Cupples $1.50 (5-8)
Crowned by the French Academy
Nobody's girl. (En famille.) Cupples $1.50 (5-8)
"This story, published in France under the title 'En famille,' is a companion volume, without however being a sequel, to 'Nobody's boy'. . . . The present story tells with that engaging simplicity which is characteristic of all Gallic literature, how a little French girl of thirteen years, left friendless and homeless, won for herself both friends and a home." Contents: Canada; Australia; New Zealand; South Africa; India
"Stories of the beginnings and growth of the great English colonies—Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India—written with pride in England's achievements, but in a spirit of fairness. It is evidently intended for a juvenile, but the treatment is too mature for any but older young people. The style is sufficiently simple and clear, however, to make it useful for reading aloud to children and the illustrations are attractive." A. L. A. bkl.
Formerly also issued separately as: Canada's story; Australasia's story; South Africa's story; India's story
Earlier title: "Empire story"

Scotland's story. 1907 Stokes $5 (6-8)
"Enriched with legend and poetry; of uncommon charm and value." A. L. A. bkl.

Stories of Beowulf. (Told to the children ser.) Dutton $1 (4-6)
"These simplified stories are very well told and retain to a considerable degree the beauty and quaintness of the original. They are better adapted for young children than other versions. Some of the colored illustrations are too gruesome for a timid child to enjoy." A. L. A. bkl.

Stories of Roland. (Told to the children ser.) 1908 Dutton $1 (4-6)
"Ten illustrated stories from the song of Roland, simply but effectively told." A. L. A. bkl.

Stories of William Tell and his friends. (Told to the children ser.) 1907 Dutton $1 (5-6)
"Thirteen short stories of the struggle for Swiss freedom." A. L. A. bkl.
"How they fought for Swiss freedom. Ends with the victory of Morgarten. For the younger children." Pittsburgh

Story of Napoleon. (Children's heroes ser.) 1908 Dutton $1 (5-6)
"A particularly interesting account of Napoleon the soldier, with little reference to political matters." A. L. A. bkl.

Story of Oliver Cromwell. (Children's heroes ser.) 1908 Dutton $1 (5-8)
"Good account of Cromwell's life in story form, well and attractively written. Eight colored pictures and 5 maps." A. L. A. bkl.

This country of ours. 1917 Doran $3.50 (5-8)
"A history of the United States for children, written by an English woman, with fairness to the American viewpoint and emphasis on the picturesque incidents. The stories, which give a continuous narrative from the discoveries of the Vikings to the entrance into war with Germany, treat the earlier period with the greater detail. Ten pictures in color by A. C. Michael." A. L. A. bkl.

New moon. Macmillan $2 (6-8)
"Boys will like this story of an orphan Irish boy who comes to America with a sheep herder, and of his friendship in the wilderness with an Indian boy and girl." Bookshelf for boys and girls
"A romantic story of American pioneering. . . . You are held in Ireland by the first four chapters of the book, and then you cross in a sailing vessel with a flock of sheep, and land in Philadelphia. . . . There is beauty and authenticity on every page, and a light that does not shine on many stories drawn from American history." A. C. Moore in Bookman

Pool of stars. Macmillan $1.50 (8)
"The love of mystery will be satisfied by this book without the 'blood-and-thunder' accompaniments of the average mystery story. An old inventor working on a fuel-saving engine, throws some important parts of the machine into a pool to thwart his villainous nephew. Two young people of the neighborhood who are preparing for college come to the rescue. There are pleasant character studies, and a setting which makes for wholesome curiosity to read to the end. Well written. Strongest appeal to girls of teens." Bkl.

Steadfast princess. Macmillan 75c (6-8)
"Won the Drama league prize for the best play for children submitted in 1915. Could be used for a Christmas play, because of the first act in the toymaster's cottage." Wis. bul.

Windy hill. Macmillan $1.50 (7-8)
"The scene is a New England country town where Janet and Oliver, aged 13 and 15 respectively, are visiting an older cousin. They make the aquaintance of the Beeman, whose stories. . . prove, eventually, to be incidents from the family history and lead directly to an understanding of certain mysterious events." Pittsburgh

Meiklejohn, Mrs. Nannine (La Villa)
Cart of many colors. Dutton $2 (6-7)
"A delightful story of Nello Rossi of Palermo, twelve years old; of how he made a gay little painted cart as a wedding gift for Mara, his sister; and how he went to Florence to learn to be a painter. The story shows us Italy against the background of the Great War, but it is not a war story. A. I. H." St. Louis

Mills, Dorothy
Book of the ancient world for younger readers. 1923 Putnam $1.90 (7-8)
"To give 'an account of our common heritage from the dawn of civilization to the coming of the Greeks' is the object of the book, used in its original form by the author in her history classes at the Brearley school. After an introduction, giving a résumé of what is known of prehistoric times, it begins with Egypt, describing the land, its architecture, civilization, life, and religion and takes up successively the Assyrians and Babylonians, the Hebrews, Hittites, Persians and Phoenicians. Maps, illustrations, chronological chart and index." Bk. rev. digest

Mills, Enos Abijah

Grizzly, our greatest wild animal. 1919 Houghton $2.25 (7-8)

Includes many anecdotes illustrating the bear's curiosity, sagacity and power of adaptation to a changed environment. Photographic illustrations." Pittsburgh

Story of a thousand-year pine. 1914 Houghton $1.25 (7-8)

"The author studies the life history of a pine tree that lived over a thousand years, by means of its annual rings of growth and their irregularities

Story of Scotch. Houghton $1.25 (7-8)

Author's reminiscences of his collie dog

Watched by wild animals. 1922 Doubleday $2.50 (7-8)

"In these stories of adventures in the open, the author shows us that while we are watching animals we are also watched by them and that wild animals show great curiosity in a human intruder. His keen observations of the habits of such animals as the mountain-goat and sheep, beaver, antelope, skunk, prairie-dog and grizzly bear are those of a painstaking observer." Bk. rev. digest

Your national parks. 1917 Houghton $3 (7-8)

"A complete historical and descriptive guide to our national parks. The Hawaii national park is included, and one chapter is given up to the National parks of Canada. Another chapter is fittingly devoted to John Muir. A list of books, on national parks, including government publications, is provided, and there are several maps, reproduced by permission of the National park service of the Department of the interior." Bk. rev. digest

Moonshine & clover. Housman, L.

Moore, Anne Carroll
Nicholas; a Manhattan Christmas story; il. by Jay Van Everen. Putnam $2 (4-7)

"The story is a true story of Nicholas, a strange Dutch boy, written for the ageless child living anywhere." A. C. Moore in Bookman

"It is the peculiar and unexpected gift of Miss Moore's book that it recaptures the old magic of the town and makes New York warm in one's heart, whether the heart happens to be young or old. . . . She tells the truth about the city with the clear-seeing eye of a child, relighting old beacons, discovering new magic in every elevated train, behind each shop window. . . . A rich handful of a book Miss Moore has written that will be equally precious to children who have cut their teeth on New York's skyline and to children afar to whom it is a longed-for fairyland, some day to rise above the horizon. Mr. Jay van Everen has provided drawings in the manner of woodcuts as understandable as they are understanding of the event and for good measure one of the most engaging maps in or out of fairyland." Geoffrey Parsons in Books

Moore, Clement Clarke
'Twas the night before Christmas; a visit from St. Nicholas; with pictures by Jessie Willcox Smith. Houghton 90c (1-2)

Nursery rhyme picture book; il. by L. L. Brooke. Warne $2 (1-3)
"Contains 'Oranges and lemons' and 'The man in the moon,' which are published separately, in paper, at forty cents each. Illustrations attractive, some in color, others in black and white." A.L.A. bkl.

Nursery rhyme picture book no. 2; il. by L. L. Brooke. Warne $2 (1-3)
Contains "Little Bo-peep" and "This little pig went to market." Included also in "Ring o' roses." These may also be purchased separately at 75c each

Nursery rhymes; il. by L. L. Brooke. Warne $2 (1-3)
Published also in three parts: Songs and ditties; Rhymes and lullabies; Tales and jungles, by Warne at 60c each
Includes many of the rhymes in the edition edited by Lang, but the arrangement is entirely different

Nursery rhymes; il. by Mabel Chadburn. Dutton $3 (1-3)
"Admirable selection. Illustrations in color and in black and white make the book unusually attractive." Wis. free lib. com.

Nursery rhymes; il. by Claud Lovat Fraser. Knopf $2 (1-3)
"A delightful picture book. The old rhymes take on a new interest illustrated by numerous engaging pictures in color and black and white. Well printed on cream paper in heavy faced type. Light board covers. Includes some of the less familiar Mother Goose rhymes and often gives an unusual rendering of the familiar ones." Bkl.

Old nursery rhymes; il. by H. Willebeek Le Mair. 6v McKay ea 75c (1-2)
Contents: Grannie's little rhyme book; Mother's little rhyme book; Auntie's little rhyme book; Nursie's little rhyme book; Baby's little rhyme book; Daddy's little rhyme book

Old nursery rhymes; il. by Arthur Rackham. Century $3.50 (1-3)
"Nearly 300 rhymes handsomely printed in large type on serviceable paper. More than sixty black and white illustrations, and 12 colored plates." N. Y. state lib.
"Its selection is excellent—the old verses that the child delights in and remembers—and the illustrations fit them, being much more like the child's thought than the extremely pretty elaborations of Willebeek Le Mair in 'Our old nursery rhymes.'" N. Y. state lib.

Only true Mother Goose melodies. Lothrop 75c (1-3)
Exact reproduction of the first Boston edition, 1833, with an introduction by Edward Everett Hale

Our old nursery rhymes; the original tunes harmonized by Alfred Moffat; il. by H. Willebeek Le Mair. McKay $3 (1-2)
"A fascinating book. Contains 30 Mother Goose rhymes with music; and as many full-page plates in which children, toys and animals are represented in delicate colors with great imaginative insight by H. Willebeek Le Mair. A companion volume, 'Little songs of long ago,' presents 30 different rhymes in the same charming manner. Most of the same pictures, on much smaller scale but still good may be had (McKay 75c each) in the little Nursery rhymes series of 6 volumes, each of which contains 12 of the rhymes from the larger books without the music." N. Y. state lib.

"A delightful nursery rhyme and picture book. It contains numbers five, six, seven and eight of the 'Brooke art fairy stories,' and is a companion volume to 'The golden goose book' ($3) which includes one, two, three and four of this series. These books may also be obtained separately as follows: 1. Story of three little pigs. 2. History of Tom Thumb. 3. Story of the three bears. 4. Golden goose. 5. Oranges and lemons. 6. Man in the moon. 7. Little Bo-peep. 8. This little pig went to market. Seven and eight of the series are new titles. These books are also bound together in groups of two, making books one and two of the 'Children's book' and books one and two of the 'Nursery rhyme picture book' (ea $2)." Bkl.

Songs from Mother Goose for voice and piano; set to music by Sidney Homer; opus 36. 1920 Macmillan $1.75; school ed $1.20
"Thirty-five of the more familiar rhymes set in simple, charming tunes with accompaniment. Three lovely pictures in color by Maginel Wright Enright." Bkl.

Story of textiles. 1916 Newark museum assn., Newark, N.J. o.p. 1924
"Contains 'exhibits of clothmaking, hatmaking, knitting, embroidery and lace, rugmaking; modern arts and crafts and the handwork of the schools; an historic exhibit of old New Jersey-made textiles and the Homelands exhibit, articles contributed by the school children of foreign parentage.' Describes the methods of preparing the thread for weaving, both early and modern; shows the processes of weaving on various looms, and in various weaves; gives quotations from the literature of all times and peoples containing allusions to this industry; presents some statistics on the subject of textiles in the United States and in New Jersey; and ends with reproductions of twelve Japanese pictures illustrating silk manufacture in the Flowery kingdom." Library journal

Newberry, Perry
Black Boulder claim. Penn $2.50 (7-8)
"The adventures of two boys prospecting in the Sierras. An attractive book, well printed and illustrated, but too expensive in make-up for general consideration. The story has much local color, is not overdrawn, and the interest is well sustained in spite of being written in first person. Diction is not remarkable." Bkl.
Castaway island. Penn $2.50 (7-8)
"Adventures of a gallant soldier of fortune and a sixteen year old lad wrecked on Charles island, of the Galapagos group, off the coast of Ecuador. Abundant practical details of a Robinson Crusoe life." N.Y. state lib.

"Book of chivalry, telling of the lives and deeds of the famous fighting men of old." Pittsburgh
Book of the long trail. 1919 Longmans $2.50 (6-8)
"Brief, accurate and interesting accounts of John Franklin, Richard Burton, David Livingstone, Henry Stanley, Burke and Wills, Francis Younghusband, Robert Scott and Alexander Wollaston. Intended as introductions to longer biographies." Cleveland
Book of the thin red line. 1915 Longmans $2.50 (6-8)
"Companion volume to the 'Book of the blue sea,' telling of the same wars, but picturing the strife on land instead of on the sea. Describes the military career and heroic deeds of four well known men—John Colborne, Sir Harry Smith, James Outram, Stonewall Jackson—and of two lesser known, Robert and George Blakeney. Will be interesting to the older boys." A. L. A. bkl.
Tales of the great war. 1916 Longmans $2.50 (7-8)
"Six tales of heroism in the different branches of the military and naval service of Great Britain which have been passed by two admirals and a general as being true and accurate. Told simply and in some detail without any attempt to thrill. For children of high school age." A. L. A. bkl.

Nicolay, Helen
Book of American wars. 1918 Century $3.50 (7-8)
"'An attempt to tell why our principal wars were fought, and how; to point out how one American war has differed from another in glory and to show that wars have personal characteristics.' (Preface) Has one brief chapter on the great war." Cleveland
"The personalities of the men who helped in the moulding of the nation's life are sympathetically portrayed, and the principles for which the nation has contended and which we receive as a heritage, are summarized in the last chapter." St. Louis
Boy's life of Abraham Lincoln. 1906 Century $1.75 (7-8)
"Well written, absorbing and inspiring." N. Y. state lib.
Boys' life of Lafayette. 1920 Harper $1.75 (7-8)
"Presents Lafayette as a French gentleman and a 'Friend of liberty;' the friend of Washington and of Napoleon, a man of occasional mistaken judgments but of fine feeling and great vision." Cleveland
Boys' life of Ulysses S. Grant. 1909 Century $1.75 (6-8)
"Based on Grant's 'Personal memoirs,' supplemented by other standard biographies and histories. The style is simple, direct and eloquent. Best life of Grant for children." A. L. A. bkl.
Our nation in the building. 1916 Century $3.50 (8)
"'An account of the first seventy years of the republic, 'caring less for dates than for happenings, less for specific happenings than for movements and currents of feeling' and carefully avoiding textbook appearance and style. An excellent book for young people.' Wis. bul." (Cleveland)
Appeared in the Century magazine, v91-92, Dec. 1915-Oct. 1916

Nida, Stella Humphrey
Panama and its "bridge of water." rev ed 1922 Rand 90c (6-8)
"Simply written record, giving some information about the early discoveries of the Isthmus and the early efforts at building a canal, devoting more than half of the book to American accomplishments and problems telling briefly about the leaders and even touching on the Panama-Pacific exposition. Well illustrated." A. L. A. bkl.
"New edition has added a very brief chapter on Tolls and a description of a trip through the canal today." Bkl.

Nida, William Lewis

City, state, and nation. 1914 Macmillan $1 (7-8)

"Textbook on constructive citizenship for elementary schools and junior high schools. Thorough and interesting treatment of subjects such as city planning and health, city institutions and government, federal and national government departments, elections. Well illustrated with photographs." Wis. bul.

Dawn of American history in Europe. 1912 Macmillan $1.20 (7-8)

"Devoted largely to mediaeval Europe, with emphasis on the social and political conditions which led to the colonization of America, but the introductory chapters tell of the ancient Teutons and of the Roman empire in its glory, its fall and its influence on its conquerors. Not too difficult for seventh grade children." Cleveland

Side lights on the war; for upper grades and high schools. 1918 Hale bk. co. 60c; pa 36c o.p. 1924

"Divided into two parts. The first outlines the duties of the aviator, the work of the submarine, camouflage, gas, the work of the Red cross, and prints a letter from an ambulance driver. Part 2, outlines the geography of the war. Simply written this gives information which will help in work with quite young children." Wis. bul.

Olcott, Frances Jenkins
(ed.) Adventures of Haroun Er Raschid and other tales; il. by Willy Pogány. Holt $2.50 (5-6)
"Miss Olcott's third volume of tales from the 'Arabian nights.' The tales included are excellent, although not the familiar ones found in other collections, and their division into episodes, as in the Burton edition, facilitates the reading and makes interesting complete stories rather than a complete adventure." Wis. bul.
(ed.) Arabian nights' entertainments; based on a translation by E. W. Lane. Holt $2 (4-6)
"A selection of stories, chosen from the Lane edition except the last two, Ali Baba and Aladdin, which are from the translation by Scott. The illustrations [by Monro S. Orr] are less interpretive of the spirit of the stories than those by Robinson and Parrish." Cleveland
Bible stories to read and tell; il. by Willy Pogány. 1916 Houghton $2.50
"One hundred and fifty stories from the Old Testament in the language of the King James version. The arrangement gives an outline history of Israel." Publisher
(ed.) Book of elves and fairies; il. in color by Milo Winter. Houghton $3 (3-5)
"Tales from the fairy and folk lore of Ireland, Bohemia, Cornwall, China, Japan, Sweden and Scotland. Suitable for story-telling, for reading aloud to children, and for the child's own reading." Brooklyn
"As far as possible the language of the originals has been retained and elements that will terrify little children or teach them that wrong is right, have been eliminated. A subject index is appended to aid the story-teller in choosing stories dealing with specific subjects, such as fruits, flowers, seasons, holidays, trees, also with moral qualities like obedience, thrift, honesty and truth-telling." Foreword
(comp.) Good stories for great birthdays. 1922 Houghton $3 (4-8)
"'Over 200 stories celebrating 23 great birthdays of patriot-founders and upbuilders of the republics of both North and South America.' (Foreword) Tersely told stories not easily found elsewhere, all contributing vividly to the history of the hero. Usefulness of the book vastly increased by full subject index of events and characters mentioned in text." Wis. bul.

(ed.) Good stories for great holidays. Houghton $3 (4-8)

"Collection of 120 stories, taken from many sources and arranged for the children's own reading, reading aloud, and specially for story-telling. Collections for seventeen holidays are given. Reference lists for story-telling and collateral reading and indexes, subject, title, author, are included." A. L. A. bkl.

(ed.) Grimm, J. L. K. and W. K. Fairy tales. Penn $3.50 (3-5)

(ed.) More tales from the Arabian nights; il. by Willy Pogány. Holt $2 (4-6)

"Supplements her other volume. 33 tales (exclusive of settings) based on the translation by Lane except two, the 'Story of Ahmed' and 'Story of the Princess Periezade', which are from Scott's translation of Galland's version. Some stories are familiar and some are not." N. Y. state lib.

(ed.) Red Indian fairy book for the children's own reading and for story tellers; with il. by Frederick Richardson. Houghton $3 (3-6)

"Sixty-four stories delightfully told; they will interest any child of fairy tale age. Taken from various sources, arranged according to the seasons with a subject index for the story teller. Largely reprinted from the New York evening post." A. L. A. bkl.

(ed.) Story-telling ballads. 1920 Houghton $3 (5-7)

"A suitable addition to any children's collection. The contents have been selected and arranged for story-telling and reading aloud and for the boys' and girls' own reading. An appendix gives suggestions for teachers and leaders of poetry hours, and a programme for a year of ballad reading and study. Glossary and indexes, pictures in color by Milo Winter." Wis. bul.

(comp.) Story-telling poems. 1913 Houghton $2 (4-8)

"Excellent collection of narrative poems, arranged under subjects and graded. Specially adapted, because of their lively interest, humorous, imaginative and ethical values and literary form, for children's reading, and for use with children. Indexes of subjects, first lines, titles and authors." N. Y. state lib.

(ed.) Tales of the Persian genii. Houghton $3 (4-7)

"'Stories retold from 'Tales of the genii' (1st edition 1765), W. A. Clouston's 'Eastern romances,' and from the 'History of King Azad,' the English translation of which is edited by Duncan Forbes. All have been recast with great freedom and moulded into a continuous narrative.'" N.Y. state lib.

"'In these stories, wonder-loving boys and girls will find the good genii, wicked marids, flying afrites, fairies, witches, and enchanters. They may wander thru Oriental gardens fragrant with spices and redolent with the perfume of roses, and listen to the sweet singing of many-colored birds, and the music of a thousand fountains, or they may feast under silken pavilions and dwell in crystal palaces.' Foreword. Four beautiful color plates by Willy Pogány." A. L. A. bkl.

(ed.) Wonder garden. Houghton $3 (4-6)

"One hundred fifty nature myths and stories adapted and rewritten from the lore of the Celts, Norsemen, Welsh, British, French, Greeks, Romans, Chinese, Japanese, American Indians and others. Full table of contents, program calendar of stories for every month, reference list and index fit these tales, almost mere outlines in their brevity, though well told, for teachers' uses or reference work. Four colored illustrations by Milo Winter." Bkl.

Olcott, Frances Jenkins, and Pendleton, Amena

(comps.) Jolly book for boys and girls. Houghton $3 (5-8)

"Most are selections from very familiar authors: Shakespeare, Dickens, Hans Andersen, Arabian nights, Alice in Wonderland, Uncle Remus, Peterkin papers, Poe, Irving, Thackeray, Charles Lamb, Cervantes. The less familiar are chiefly fairy tales and fables." N. Y. state lib.

Olcott, Harriet Mead

Whirling king and other French fairy tales. Holt $1.75 (3-5)

"In each of the reprints two volumes of the original series have been bound together. . . The number of illustrations has been reduced from an average of twelve to an average of eight . . . Make-up unchanged." Bkl.

It is planned to issue other volumes in this reprint form at a later date

"Descriptive sketches and colored pictures introducing the child to the life, history and folk lore of various countries. The colored illustrations are taken from beautiful books of travel published by Black. In some books of the series the language and treatment is too mature for all but high school children and adults." Am. L. E.

"The books are written by English authors, naturally from the English point of view, and use comparisons with English conditions, customs, and ideas. Those written by Mr. Finnemore usually make excellent selections as to the features of the country, characteristics of the people, customs, occupations, amusements, and historic incidents he describes. Child life is given especial emphasis." A. L. A. bkl.

Belgian twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-7)
"Shows the effect of the Belgian invasion on a quiet peasant family which is reunited in America. It is based on the actual experience of two children, and other characters in the book have living originals. It is not for the little children, but is interesting and well written and gives boys and girls from nine to thirteen some realization of what the war has meant to Belgian children." A. L. A. bkl.

"Delightful book for very little children, giving with extreme simplicity a good idea of the everyday life of a Dutch brother and sister. Attractive illustrations." A. L. A. sup.

Dutch twins primer. Houghton 64c (1-2)
"The twins Kit and Kat, their parents and grandparents are the same as those in the story 'Dutch twins,' but the incidents are different and all the pictures are new, though in the same style and attractive like the others. ... Illustrations on nearly every page." N.Y. state lib.

Eskimo twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (3-4)
"Daily doings of the twins, Menie and Monnie, aged five, their dogs, Nip and Tup, their parents, and the rest of the village. Attractive sketches by the author. The [88c] edition is a reprint of the first edition with same illustrations, narrower margins." A. L. A. bkl.

Filipino twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-7)
"The twins, Ramon and Rita, children of a poor farmer, live in a strange little house near Manila bay. The story tells of the rice planting and of how the typhoon carried the family off on a raft, and nearly ruined their rice crop as well. Amusing episodes are provided by way of contrast. Illustrated with crayon drawings by the author." N. Y. state lib.

French twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-7)
"Pierre and Pierrette, who live in Rheims, bravely do their part in helping to win the European war. How they rescue their wounded father from the burning cathedral, escape with their parents from the shell-riddled city, make friends with some Americans and become honorary members of the Foreign legion, may be read in the story. Quaint drawings of the twins, the 'raveled-out' dog and their other friends." Pittsburgh

Irish twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (3-4)

Italian twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-6)
"Beppo and Beppina, who live in a beautiful old palace in Florence, are kidnapped by a strolling couple with a hand-organ, a monkey, and a performing bear. The story tells how the children are taught to sing and dance in the streets, how they finally escape from their captors in Venice, and of their difficulties in trying to find their way home." Pittsburgh

Japanese twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (3-4)
"The twins are just five years old and they live in a dear little house in a queer little town in the middle of the Happy islands. The stories tell of the festival of dolls and of the feast of flags, etc. Illustrated by the author." Pittsburgh

(comp.) Robin Hood. 1923 Houghton $2 (5-7)
"From the ballads recounting the doings of Robin Hood and his fellows, Mrs. Perkins has chosen some of the most popular narratives and embellished them with drawings in color." Literary review
Published by Stokes in 1906

Scotch twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-6)
"Like the other twin books, this conveys the atmosphere and spirit of the country described, at the same time telling a real story with a definite plot." Cleveland

(il.) Shakespeare, W: Midsummer night's dream (6-7)

Spartan twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (5-6)
"An attractive volume added to the popular twin books. Will be enjoyed by fifth or sixth grade children in spite of the unfamiliar names and atmosphere. Easily dramatized with the help of the illustrations. Suggestions for teachers." Bkl.

Swiss twins. Houghton $1.75; school ed 88c (3-4)
"The first day Seppi and Leneli, 10-year-old twin brother and sister, herd the goats on the mountain, an avalanche blocks the trail. How the children win home with the goats makes one of the best stories in this excellent series. Delightful illustrations by the author." N. Y. state lib.

"We have tried here to tell quite simply the story of the lives of a dozen great men. . . . There are many books about men of action . . . but it is not so easy to find any simple account of men who have used their minds and their pens, rather than the sword, in the work for the betterment of their country to which they have devoted their lives." Ripley, Frederic Herbert, and Schneider, Elizabeth
Art-music readers. 2 bks 1916 Mentzer bk1 80c; bk2 90c (5-8)
Book one relates the myths conected with the origin of music, and outlines the development of the art to the end of the middle ages.

Each story is embellished by a well-known poem, and is followed by a reproduction of some work of the painter's art, which the tradition has prompted a great artist to produce. The second book treats of a later period of music history, and more distinctly touches the music interests of the children. The plan is similar to book one, but in addition there is a characteristic song by each composer mentioned.

Ripley, Frederic Herbert, and Tapper Thomas
Melodic readers. 4v Am. bk. 1st reader 44c; 2d reader 48c; 3d reader 52c; 4th reader 64c (1-4)

Rolt-Wheeler, Francis William
Aztec-hunters. Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"In story form this gives unusual information about the manners and customs of the ancient peoples of Central America and about the ruins which they have left behind them. The story part is negligible, not interesting, but the information will hold some children about eleven or twelve." Bkl.
Book of cowboys. 1921 Lothrop $2 (7-8)
"As in his many other books the author clothes his information in story form. He goes back to the eighteen-fifties for its beginning and his hero is a boy who grows up with the country. Good illustrations from photographs, sketches and early prints." Wis. bul.
Boy with the U. S. diplomats. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (7-8)
"Largely devoted to descriptions of life in China and the East in the early days of our dealings there. Dr. Rolt-Wheeler essays to show through this medium, how American interests began there and to set forth the development of her grasp on Hawaii, Samoa and the Philippines. Much of value in the form of historical data is given, judiciously set before the young reader as his attention is held by the relations of the chief figure in the tale, the son of an American trader." Literary review
Boy with the U. S. explorers. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Reveals the work of the U. S. Bureau of agriculture. A lad in Kansas, by calling on the Bureau for help, saves his father's farm, which the government agent makes a temporary experiment station. The Bureau's work in exploring for specimens in other lands is shown when William wins, through a prize contest, a trip around the world." A. L. A. bkl.

Rolt-Wheeler, Francis William—Continued

Boy with the U. S. fisheries. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"The boy has varied experiences in Behring sea, Bermuda, Florida, on the Mississippi and at the Woods Holl laboratory. He learns much about marine life and the work of the United States fisheries bureau." A. L. A. bkl.

Boy with the U. S. foresters. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Precisely what forestry is and what timber conservation means is told in an attractive and inspiring way. The thirty-eight illustrations are from photographs taken by the U. S. Forest service." A. L. A. bkl.

Boy with the U. S. Indians. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Full of authoritative information, as it passed the censorship of the Bureau of ethnology and office of Indian affairs." A. L. A. bkl.
"Virgil Keen attends an Indian council in Montana with his friend Lost Wolf and later receives an appointment from the United States Bureau of ethnology to do special work in color photography among the Indians of the Southwest. Interesting illustrations." Pittsburgh

Boy with the U.S. inventors. (U.S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)

Boy with the U. S. life-savers. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Enthusiastic account of the work of the U. S. Coast guard, revealed in many stories of rescue and hardship." A. L. A. bkl.

Boy with the U. S. mail. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)

Boy with the U. S. miners. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Interwoven with the experiences of a young American boy who is entombed in a mine is much information about the methods of mining coal and gold and the development of safety devices." Pittsburgh

Boy with the U.S. naturalists. (U.S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"A deal of information on the value and protection of bird life, and on the biological survey is told through a story which is hastily written but interesting. Good photographs." Bkl.

Boy with the U. S. secret service. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (7-8)
"Interesting combination of true detective stories and very real information of the work of the U. S. Secret Service in safeguarding the interests of the Treasury department." Cleveland

Boy with the U. S. survey. (U. S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Recounts some of the important work being done by the U. S. Geological survey in the guise of a story of a sturdy boy's experience with different detachments of the Survey working in the swamps of Minnesota, in the Arizona canyons and deserts, and in Alaskan wilds." A. L. A. sup.

Boy with the U.S. trappers. (U.S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (7-8)
"Much practical and definite information given with an interesting story and portrayal of Western life in the open." N.J. lib. bul.

Boy with the U.S. weather men. (U.S. service ser.) Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Physical geography in story form. A crippled boy acts as a volunteer observer for the Weather bureau and with a few of his friends forms the Mississippi league of the weather to study local conditions." Cleveland

Monster hunters. Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Adventures of Perry Hunt, a lad interested in the work of the museum in his town, who accompanies his uncle to Egypt and Wyoming on expeditions engaged in hunting for the remains of prehistoric animals. Well illustrated." N.Y. state lib.

Polar hunters. Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"The story of the life of an Eskimo boy. By his joining the Peary expedition, considerable information about the several polar explorers is introduced. Illustrated with photographs from the American museum of natural history." A. L. A. bkl.

Sahara hunters. Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Absorbing story of the Sahara Desert giving an intimate picture of the two tribes of Black-Veiled Men who are all powerful in the interior because of their knowledge of the secret wells. Even the long descriptive portions of the tale are full of interest with their mystery and wonder. A number of desert legends are introduced." St. Louis

Thomas Alva Edison. (True stories of great Americans) 1915 Macmillan $1 (6-8)
"Interesting and popular. Based largely on the other biographies. Describes Edison's inventions of substitutes for European products cut off by the war." N. Y. state lib.

Wonder of war in the Holy Land. Lothrop $1.75 (6-8)
"Thrilling adventures of a boy whose father was connected with an American archaeological expedition in the East. Many references to the Bible, and a vivid account of the rise and fall of Babylon." St. Louis

Wreck-hunters. Lothrop $1.75 (7-8)
"A story of treasure trove. With the author, one may share in the rescue of the Ocean Fay stranded upon a Bahaman reef, dive for the buried gold of a pirate ship, or help in raising a Spanish galleon. Old time wrecking methods and modern ways of salvaging are both described." Pittsburgh

Sing-song. Macmillan $1.25 (1-3)

"A nursery rhyme book unsurpassed for its lyric quality, technical workmanship, and birdlike spontaneity. The verses are brief and simple, but, in their own realm, they are comparable only with Blake's 'Songs of innocence' and some of the recent poetry of Walter De La Mare. Except for an occasional poem which seems to present an adult mood, the verses are child-like and fanciful with touches of light and playful humor and now and then the admonition of a wise elder who is still a child at heart. This edition contains the original illustrations of Arthur Hughes." Elva S. Smith

Sandburg, Carl
Rootabaga pigeons; il. by Maud and Miska Petersham. Harcourt $2 (4-7)
"More tales by the creator of 'Rootabaga stories,' a book considered by many critics to be an original contribution to the interpretation of some phases of modern American life from a child's point of view." Providence
"Those who liked Carl Sandburg's 'Rootabaga stories' and found in them something new and different than we have had in any book before, will go further and find still more in 'Rootabaga pigeons.' Those who did not like the first book will do well to read the second before forming a final opinion as to the value of Carl Sandburg's contribution to American children's books. I feel sure that a definite volume of the two books will eventually be made by the author, since the stories are unequal in content and form and some of them were manifestly not written for children. Such stories as 'Slipfoot,' 'Pig wisps,' 'Deep red roses,' 'The pigeons who sent the telegrams,' and others are bound to live because they are works of art." A. C. Moore in Bookman
Rootabaga stories; il. by Maud and Miska Petersham. Harcourt $2 (4-7)
"Stories humorous and fantastic. They will be enjoyed by adults, but will make a limited appeal to children as the atmosphere of real American folk lore heralded by the critics seems to be lacking." Cleveland
"The stories give play to extravagant fancy, pure nonsense, delightful humor and philosophy and rare beauty of thought and expression that insure their place on the narrow shelf of authentic American literature for children." Bkl.

Schoolcraft, Henry Rowe

Indian fairy book; from the original legends. Stokes $2.50

"Chosen from the many stories collected by Mr. Henry R. Schoolcraft, the first man to study how the Indians lived and to discover their legends. In 1856 this collection of his stories was published by Mason brothers in New York city. It is republished, with revisions and with new illustrations in color, so that these stories may be passed on as they deserve." Foreword

Story of a pioneer. 1915 Harper $2 (7-8)

"A vigorous, direct, unusual recounting of facts worthy the telling. Undoubtedly the portions relating to suffrage, its growth as a movement, the author's connection with it, and her description of noted people likewise associated, will prove of special interest to many; the narration of the less familiar facts of her unusual childhood and youth, and the vein of humor running through it all, however, will win the attention of those not thus attracted. Pleasingly illustrated." A. L. A. Bkl.

(comp.) Mystery tales for boys and girls. 1917 Lothrop $2 (7-8)

"Twenty-six tales in prose and verse, selected from standard and modern authors such as Poe, Goethe, Irving, Scott, Lagerlöf and Alfred Noyes. A combination of thrills and good literature for mystery-craving boys and girls and for adults. Will be particularly useful for Hallowe'en readings." Cleveland

(comp.) Peace and patriotism; selections from poetry and prose. 1919 Lothrop $2 (6-8)

Contents: Patriotism; Peace and international good will; National songs of other lands; Service

"The purpose of this collection is to bring together into one volume for convenient use some of the best poems, speeches, and other selections emphazing the ideals of patriotism, internationalism and service, not only to one's own country but to humanity also. It presents the fundamental ideas of liberty and justice which must prevail if ever there is to be harmony among nations and is designed especially to supplement the reading of patriotic stories, martial poems, and hero tales. . . . The selections used have been drawn from many sources and cover a wide range of time. Modern writers are represented as well as the older standard English and American authors." Preface

Soolook, wild boy; il. by Charles Livingston Bull. Little $1.75 (7-8)
"Soolook, an outcast Eskimo boy, faces alone the adventures of the icy desert and becomes skilled in hunting, fishing, self-preservation and all the crafts of primitive life. His path crosses that of two young Americans from Nome, and in spite of his superstitious fear of the white man, he becomes their fast friend. There is much stalking of big game—Arctic bears and wolves, walruses and caribou—but all within the range of possibility." Bkl.

Cornelli; tr. by Elizabeth P. Stork. (Stories all children love ser.) Lippincott $1.50 (4-6)

"Following Heidi have come a number of shorter and simpler stories by the author. Now in 'Cornelli' we have a translation of another of her longer works. It has both character and plot interest and should appeal to older girls as well as to young children." Wis. bul.

Gritli's children. Crowell $1.50 (6-7)

Story of a little group of Swiss children, two of whom go to live in Germany on the river Rhine There is also an edition published by Lippincott in 1924 at $3

Heidi. Crowell $1.50 (4-6)

"A delightful story of child life on the mountains of Switzerland. Its chief charm lies in the author's harmonious pictures of the child Heidi and the out-of-door life about her." Power and Prentice

—Same. (Everyman's lib.) Dutton 80c; lib binding $1

—Same; colored illustrations by Lizzie Lawson. Dutton $3

"A beautiful book." Oregon

—Same; il. by Jessie Willcox Smith. McKay $3.50

"Attractive edition, with illustrations that are faithful to the story. The translation is not so good as that by Helen B. Dole used by Ginn, but the make-up will please the children." Wis bul.

—Same; il. by Gustaf Tenggren. (Riverside bookshelf) Houghton $2

Four full-page illustrations in color

—Same; tr. by H. B. Dole. Ginn school ed 68c

—Same; tr. by E. P. Stork, and il. by Maria L. Kirk. Lippincott $1.50

"This new translation is an attempt to write the story afresh, as Johanna Spyri would have written it had English been her native tongue. To those who love the quaintness of the original, so well preserved in other translations, this one will seem a distinct loss. The form is attractive, the pictures delightful." A. L. A. bkl.

Rose child; tr. by Helen B. Dole. 1916 Crowell 75c (4-6)

"Quaint story of a little Swiss orphan girl who brings comfort and food to a poor widow thru her earnings by gathering roses. The two friends are finally made happy by the return of the widow's son." Wis. bul.

Toni, the little woodcarver. Crowell 75c (4-5)

Vinzi; tr. by Elisabeth P. Stork; il. by Maria L. Kirk. Lippincott $1.50 (5-6)

"Recounts the experiences of a group of children, one of whom is possessed of genuine love for music and through it runs afoul of his father's plans for his future. To wean him from his passion the boy is sent to relatives in a part of Switzerland removed from his home, and by way of effecting a change his cousin comes to take his place in his own family circle. The diverse groups thus introduced give opportunity for description of some variety." Literary review

Stein, Evaleen—Continued

Our little crusader cousin of long ago; being the story of Hugh, page to King Richard of England, in the third crusade. (Little cousins of long ago ser.) Page $1 (5-7)

"Hugh's adventures in Palestine with his friend Raymond, a page of King Philip of France, give a clear picture of the conditions and customs existing at that period of English history, so that children of nine or ten can readily understand it." Bkl.

Our little Frankish cousin of long ago: being the story of Rainolf, a boy at the court of Charlemagne. (Little cousins of long ago) Page $1 (4-6)

"A simply-told, vivid picture of court life and customs, including the story of Roland and the battle of Roncesvalles, and a description of the ceremony of Christmas day of the year 800 when Charlemagne was crowned emperor." St. Louis

Our little Norman cousin of long ago. (Little cousins of long ago) 1915 Page $1 (5-8)

"With a slight story this gives a vivid picture of manners and customs in Normandy at the time of William the Conqueror. Describes castle life, dress, amusements, tournaments, training for knighthood and gives a glimmering of an idea of the feudal system." A. L. A. bkl.

Rosechen and the wicked magpie. Lothrop $1 (2-4)

"Story of a little Tyrolese peasant girl, a caged magpie which was not really wicked, and the traditionally hard-hearted baron of the district, who is brought to see the error of his ways." A. L. A. bkl.

Troubadour tales. Bobbs $1.50 (5-6)

"Four tales of the middle ages about minstrels, knights, pages and a little Finnish maiden." N. Y. state lib.

Steinberg, Jehudah

Breakfast of the birds, and other stories; tr. by Emily Solis-Cohen, jr. Jewish pub. $1.50

"Eighteen short legends and fairy tales translated from the Hebrew, some of which will interest any child, but which are of particular interest to Jewish children. A few are a little above a child's comprehension. The four interesting colored illustrations are made by a child as the translator felt that 'the child point of view might find expression and the value of the book be enhanced for all readers.' " A. L. A. bkl.

Steiner, Edward Alfred

Uncle Joe's Lincoln. Revell $1.25 (6-8)

"Uncle Joe, who had lost an arm and a leg in Lincoln's army, returns to Hungary an old man and there rounds into shape the little backyard troop of boys who learn to admire his hero. Enlarged from a sketch in Steiner's 'Against the current.' " Bkl.

Gulliver's travels; ed. by Padraic Colum; il. by Willy Pogány. Macmillan $2.25 (6-8)
"An attractive new edition which contains all the tales made over as often before into a story for children. 'A voyage to Laputa, etc.' and 'A voyage to the country of the Houyhnhnms' have some slight omissions not made in the Harper edition illustrated by Louis Rhead. This edition has good paper, clear print, and twelve well executed illustrations in color and numerous black and white drawings, quaint and attractive. Compares favorably with the Rackham edition published by Dutton and the Staynes edition, Holt, as to illustrations. The general make-up is superior to the Staynes and it is more convenient in size than the Rackham. . . . There is a twelve page introduction by Padraic Colum sketching Swift's life and work." N.Y. state lib.

—Same; il. in colour and black-and-white by Arthur Rackham. Dutton $3.50

—Same; with 8 il. by Arthur Rackham. (Tales for children from many lands) Dutton $1

—Same. (Everyman's lib.) Dutton 80c; lib binding $1

—Same; il. by Louis Rhead. Harper $1.75
"An attractive edition containing all the voyages somewhat expurgated for children. Well printed on good paper and illustrated by over a hundred drawings in black and white, many of them full-page. Imaginary maps of the countries." N. Y. state lib.
"[These illustrations] because of their bold outline and larger size will appeal to children more than the more delicate drawings of C. E. Brock in the Macmillan edition." Wis. bul.

Contents: Fairy doll; Christmas in the forest; Christening of Rosalys; Enchanted garden; Strange boy

"Five whimsical fanciful fairy plays for children in the lower grades." Cleveland

Rachel and the seven wonders; il. by Joyce Mercer. Stokes $1.75 (5-7)

"Some rather formal records from our histories transformed into what seem almost like fairy tales. Rachel . . . journeys into the past to visit the seven wonders in the world—the Great Pyramid, Babylon's Hanging Gardens, the Colossus of Rhodes, etc. The stories of these marvels of old are dramatically unfolded, giving understanding of their origin and making." Robin Goodfellow and other fairy plays for children. 1918 Dodd $1.25 (6-8)

Contents: Robin Goodfellow; Princess Fragoletta; The old toys; Venus and Cupid: a sketch for a ballet; The dryad's awaking: a sketch for a ballet; Queen Flora's court: a masque

"Six charming little plays full of the fairy spirit. One, 'The old toys,' is distinctly for small children. The rest, except 'Robin Goodfellow' and 'Princess Fragoletta' are much better fitted to young people in their teens. Three of the latter are frames for ballets and one is a flower masque. The plays are all conveniently arranged to require a few stage fixtures. Some might well be acted out of doors." A. L. A. bkl.

"In the present revised and enlarged edition the chapters dealing with discovery, exploration, colonization, and the early days of the republic have been rewritten in the light of the latest scholarship by Professor Edgar E. Robinson. Professor Frederic L. Paxson has done a similar service in the chapters devoted to the Civil war and subsequent periods, down to the close of the year 1923. In view of the increasing tendency to study the Constitution in our schools, there is added in the appendix a careful analysis of this document. Opportunity has been taken, also, to reset the book from new type throughout, and to add a number of new maps and illustrations." Publishers' note

Science of common things. 1922 Heath $1.60 (7-8)
"It represents the fruits of over ten years of specialization in the organizing and teaching of general science courses in high and junior high schools. We have deemed it inadvisable to attempt to cover the entire field of science. The work as outlined in this book deals solely with the immediate environment of the pupil—with things that happen every day in his experience. . . . The project problem method is used throughout the book." Foreword

"The basis for this account can be found at large in my 'Pilgrims and their history.' But it has seemed to me that the events must be personalized for small children and that the story must be told for them directly, with conversation and description, rather than by indirect discourse." Foreword

"Tells the story concretely, with dialogue and description attractive to children. The leading historical characters are made to stand out distinctly in the narrative, and the legendary ones are dropped. Illustrated from paintings and old cuts." Bkl.

"Abandoning the vertical stratifications between subjects, artificial distinctions observed nowhere by practical men of the world or by scientists in research or in business, it presents information about a large number of physical phenomena that the authors consider most important for boys and girls, whether they continue in school or drop out to enter the several vocations. To avoid economic aimlessness, it organizes the details under the five major topics of air, water, food, protection, and the work of the world. Annotated bibliographies at the end of each chapter." Ancient man; the beginning of civilization; il. by the author. 1920 Boni & Liveright modern lib ed 95c (7-8)
Published previously in an edition at $3
"Volume one 'describes the earliest development of civilization along the banks of the Nile and the Mediterranean and in the fertile valley of Mesopotamia.' This is to be the first of a series of nine volumes to bring the understanding of history down to the present day. Written in simple English which children of eight can understand and children from eleven on can read to themselves. The pictures, charts, and maps are apparently very simple, in reality they are full of suggestions and mean more and more as the child connects them with the context." Bkl.

"Alfred Knowles and his friend Harry Metford were in danger of arrest for running a man down while speeding their automobile. . . . They happened to take temporary refuge on board a schooner, to be carried out to sea. The vessel is a whaler, one of the last of her line, and the boys' pleading and threats and offers of payment are of no avail. The boat is bound for the Arctic, and they must go with her, working their passage. Their experiences are not unlike those of Harry Cheyne, of 'Captains courageous,' and they learn the same lesson." Bk. rev. digest

Bobby of the Labrador. McClurg $1.75 (7-8)
"Bobby is adopted and brought up by Eskimos, who find him adrift in a boat. Jimmy, another waif, is adopted by an American hunter and fisherman. The exciting adventures of the two boys are interesting though the plot is forced." A. L. A. bkl.

Fur trail adventurers. McClurg $1.75 (7-8)
"Many details of the story are improbable, but there is much outdoors atmosphere." Wis. bul.

Gaunt gray wolf. Revell $1.75 (7-8)
"Experiences of two boys trapping in Labrador during the 'hungry winter' of 1890-91 when the caribou failed and over one-third of the Indians of the district perished. Sequel to 'Ungava Bob.'" N. Y. state lib.

Grit a-plenty; a tale of the Labrador wild. Revell $1.75 (7-8)
"Two boys, whose father has been injured, undertake to hunt his winter fur trail. They experience many hardships and dangers, and 'grit-a--plenty' is needed before they again see the trapper's cabin on Eskimo bay." Pittsburgh
"A wholesome book for boys, though a trifle 'preachy.' Does not show the life of the people as well as 'Bobby of the Labrador.'" Bkl.

Ragged inlet guards. Revell $1.75
"The time is that of the European war. Four boys, whose fathers and older brothers are fighting 'over seas,' form themselves into a company of soldiers to guard Big Bowl harbor and Ragged Inlet. They have a real share in the great world struggle and finally capture a German wireless station." Pittsburgh

Story of Grenfell of the Labrador. 1922 Revell $1.50 (8)
"A boy's life of Wilfred T. Grenfell. A few chapters cover Doctor Grenfell's early life, and the rest of the narrative is given to his aims, adventures and untiring efforts to help the people of Labrador. For older boys." N. Y. state lib.

Troop One of the Labrador. Revell $1.75 (6-8)
"A famous doctor from New York decides to spend his life in Labrador and there organizes a troop of boy scouts. The disappearance of a valuable silver fox fur furnishes cause for much search and exciting adventures for the new troop. Well written and wholesomely thrilling." Wis. bul.

Ungava Bob. Revell $1.75; Grosset (Every boy's lib.) $1 (8)
"Thrilling adventures of a young trapper in the Labrador and Ungava regions. Much information is given in an interesting way. Mr. Wallace is well qualified from personal experience to write of this Northern country." Arnold

Wilderness castaways. McClurg $1.75 (6-8)
"Two boys, the son of a New York millionaire and a sturdy, self-reliant sailor lad, are lost from a hunting party in the Hudson Bay region and pass a winter of peril and hardship in the great North. A night adrift on an ice-pan, hunting and trapping feats, and encounters with wolves and other wild animals form a part of the story." Pittsburgh

Young Arctic traders; further adventures of the Arctic stowaways. McClurg $1.75 (6-8)
"Tells of the adventures of Al Knowles and Harry Metford, two boys who sought shelter from an escapade in the hold of a whaler, the Sea Lion, as she lay at New Bedford wharf. The ship put to sea while they slept." Springfield republican

"Emphasis upon the important incidents and characters." Oregon
"To the revised edition nearly fifty pages have been added, so that the book now includes an account of England's part in the world war, the Irish free state, and the changes in Egypt and various parts of the British empire." Preface

Warren, Mrs. Maude Lavinia (Radford)
King Arthur and his knights. Rand 75c (5-7)
"Designed primarily as a reading-book for the 5th and 6th grades, the selection of stories being made with the view of presenting strictly suitable reading for this purpose. In conception and outline the author sometimes follows the Morte D'Arthur, sometimes the 'Idylls of the King'; but only the more important adventures and events are included. The narrative, thus abbreviated in incident, is expanded by the insertion of descriptive and explanatory matter. The language is modern. The book may be of use in large collections as a story of chivalry or to meet school needs but for medieval spirit and literary merit it is of less value than renderings which follow the original narratives more closely." Wonder world we live in. 1921 Knopf $3 (5-8)
A new edition of "World's wonder stories," published by Putnam in 1917
Contents: How? Why? When? Where?; How was the world made? Where did the plants and animals come from?; Nature's family tree; Who was the first man?; Who was the greatest grandfather of creation?; Where did all the religions come from?; Where did the Bible come from?; Where did right and wrong come from?; How do things happen?
"The information is correct and modern. . . . No child could read the book without understanding something of the scientific method and what it has accomplished." Nature
"An extraordinary little book, written in a style of unaffected simplicity, a natural talking style, and dealing with the history not only of the physical universe, but of the moral and spiritual nature of man." Bookman
Caution should be used in circulating this book, as the radicalism of the chapters on ethics and religion will be found objectionable by some parents and teachers

W — Earth and its people. rev. (Geography ser. v1) 1922 Heath 96c (4-6)
Slight revisions since the 1910 edition
"First of a series of readers intended to occupy the middle ground between textbooks and books of travel. The text is clear and direct, emphasizing physiographic features and development of countries. The type and paper are good, the photographic illustrations well chosen and reproduced, the maps well drawn and clear, the binding strong. In this volume the resources, products and physical geography of the continents are considered." A. L. A. bkl.

Europe. rev (Geography ser. v4) 1921 Heath (4-6) 96c
Contents: Europe; British isles; France; Netherlands; Belgium; Spain and Portugal; Norway; Sweden; Denmark; Germany; Switzerland; Italy; Austria and Hungary; Russia; Balkan peninsula; New countries of central Europe
Slight revisions of material about the countries affected by the World War

World book; organized knowledge in story and picture. 10v rev ed 1924 Quarrie $57.50
"An encyclopedia primarily for children, but containing much material of which parents and teachers will gladly avail themselves. Promises to be very useful in school reference work, especially in geography." Cleveland
"Many minor changes have been made in this new revised edition. Statistics, articles on cities, biographical material, etc., brought up to date." Bkl.
A loose leaf annual covering the events of each year, has been published beginning with the year 1921, 50c each. This is useful to those having an earlier edition but those having the latest edition will not need the annuals for the years preceding the date of the new edition. Another supplementary feature is the "Outlines for reading and study" with page references to the World book

Books About Children's Reading

Barnes, Walter. Children's poets. 1924 World bk $1.80

"Analyses and appraisals of the greatest English and American poets for children, for use in normal schools, library schools, and homes." Subtitle

"Mr. Barnes has made a contribution of considerable value in his book of informative essays and appraisals of English and American poets who are known as children's poets. It is the first book in this field, and the lack of it has been so long felt in schools and libraries that it will find its place immediately." A. C. Moore in Bookman

Barnes, Walter. Types of children's literature. 1919 World bk. $2.16

For use in colleges, normal schools, and library schools

"This collection of specimens of children's literature has evolved itself out of the editor's experience in teaching classes in children's literature in normal school and college, and it is published in the belief that other teachers of this subject find the same need of such a book that the editor has experienced." Preface

Barry, F. V. Century of children's books. 1923 Doran $2

"A discussion of the children's books published during the 18th century, introduced by a chapter on earlier chap-books and other material not written for children but undoubtedly read by them in a period when children's books were few. A valuable contribution to the subject." Cleveland

Curry, C. M., and Clippinger, E. E. Children's literature; ed with introduction, notes, and bibliographies. 1921 Rand $3.50

"A textbook of sources for teachers and teacher-training classes." Subtitle

"Includes in one volume selections from Mother Goose; fairy tales; fables; myths; poetry; realistic stories; nature literature; romance cycles and legends; biography and hero stories. The selected general bibliography lists books on the various phases of the study of children's literature. Each section is preceded by an introduction, bibliography and suggestions for reading applicable to that special topic. Useful as a reference and source book used where it would be difficult to assemble all this material, or to teachers or anyone wishing to become acquainted with children's literature as a whole." Bkl.

A handbook for the guidance of reading circles, teaching-training instructors and individual teacher-students supplements the book, 75c

Fay, L. E., and Eaton, A. T. Instruction in the use of books and libraries. 2d ed rev 1919 Faxon $3.75

"The authors have re-arranged some chapters, made a few revisions in the text, and as far as possible brought the book-lists up to date." Preface

"Part 2, 'Selection of books and children's literature,' gives definite ideals and principles of selection, history of children's literature, excellent bibliographies of children's books, and a good selection for a high-school library." Wis. bul.

Field, E. M. The child and his book. Wells, Gardner, London 6s

Excellent for the historical development of children's literature.

Field, W. T. Fingerposts to children's reading. 1907 McClurg $1.25

"Contains excellent suggestions in such chapters as The influence of books, Reading in the home, Reading in the school, etc." Wis. free lib. com.

Hunt, C. W. What shall we read to the children? 1915 Houghton $1.50

The lists at the end of the book have been revised and prices brought up to date in the 1924 reprint

"A sane and helpful book written specially for mothers, emphasizing the importance of the joy in reading that can be given to very little children. A list of books for the child's own library is given, ranging from those suitable for three-year-old children to those for children over seven." Wis. bul.

Lowe, Orton. Literature for children. 1914 Macmillan $1.40

"Discussion for teachers and parents marked by enthusiasm, good sense and excellent literary taste. Includes some hundred pages of poems good for memorizing by the children themselves and a bibliography of good books and editions." N. Y. Libraries

MacClintock, P. L. Literature in the elementary school. 1907 Univ. of Chicago press $1.25

"Gives much help in the classification of stories, the development of the story in relation to the growing child, and the source of characteristic stories." Bone

Moore, A. C. New roads to childhood. 1923 Doran $2

"A refreshing atmosphere of enthusiasm pervades this little volume of articles on subjects related to children's reading. Besides the chapters appraising the contents and illustrations of many old and new books, there are fascinating accounts of David Copperfield's library, the value of the story hour and something of French and Italian children's books." N.Y. state lib.

Contains the reviews of children's books which have appeared in the Bookman from November 1920 to November 1923

Moore, A. C. Roads to childhood. 1920

"A reprinting of her informal and delightful articles in The Bookman. In the more or less casual but none the less pungent reviewing of individual books of the past year, Miss Moore has interspersed the ideas gained from many years of loved association with books and children. Beautiful quotations mark chapters rich in suggestion to mothers and fathers, authors, librarians and teachers." Bkl.

Moses, M. J. Children's books and reading. 1907 Kennerley $1.50 o.p. 1924

"Contains chapters on children's reading; history of children's books; old-fashioned books; the modern library and the book. The most valuable parts are those treating of the history of children's literature." A. L. A.

New edition to be published by Little, in preparation 1924

Olcott, F. J. Children's reading. 1912 Houghton $1.75

"A very readable and trustworthy guide for parents, discussing the influence of good and bad books, children's interests, ways of guiding reading, and presenting in separate chapters the different classes of literature for children with principles and definite suggestions for selection. Each chapter is followed by a list of books and articles, well chosen and furnished with helpful notes." A. L. A. bkl.

Aids To Story-Telling

Collections of stories which are suited to the children's own reading have been included in the main list and are not repeated here. Collections included here are primarily for the story-teller.
